ROBERT McDUFFIE
Robert McDuffie
Wins State Title

MACON, Ga. — Robert McDuffie, Jr., a violin student at Macon, Ga., won the Georgia state scholarship to the Transylvania Summer Music Camp, Brevard, N. C., given by the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs which had its junior division state meeting in Atlanta March 6 and 7.

Robert, who is 11 years old, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. McDuffie, 772 Malwood Drive, Macon, Ga. Mrs. McDuffie is the former Susan Thigpen of Edenton. He is a violin student of T. Henrick Schwarzenberger. He began performing publicly when he was seven and is the youngest student ever to have won this scholarship, according to Georgia Federation officials.

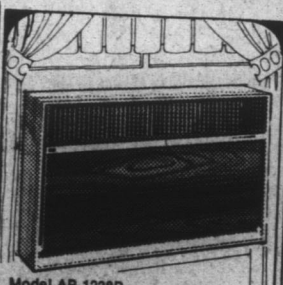

He has been invited to perform at the State Senior Convention Scholarship luncheon to be held in Atlanta on April 3.

Robert is a member of the Macon-Wesleyan String Orchestra under the direction of Walter Steinhilber, a member of the Mozart Music Club and is an avid golf and baseball player.
