From The Yellowed Pages Of The Chowan Herald

30 YEARS AGO
The Chowan County Board of Elections decided to call for a new registration rather than the relisting of the voters in the county. Either of the two methods were provided for in new legislation passed by the General Assembly.

Father E. L. Gross, pastor of St. Ann's Catholic Church, informed his congregation that he had been transferred to St. Catherine of Siena Church at Wake Forest. He was in Edenton three and one-half years and was replaced by Father Arthur Racette from St. Joan of Arc Church at West Asheville. Despite a sudden change in temperature, the first contingent of 18 northern baseball players arrived in Edenton for spring training for the Pocomoke City and Reading baseball clubs. They made their headquarters at Hotel Joseph Hewes.

One of the most daring robberies to take place in Edenton within recent years occurred when Campen's Jewelry Store was looted and between $1,500 and $2,000 worth of merchandise carried away. Renovation of the Dixon property on the corner of the Broad and King Streets was about completed for the A & P store. The building was formerly occupied by S. Ganderson & Sons. A portion of the building was leased to J. A. Davenport for his Friendly Meat Market. Game Warden J. G. Perry announced that the fishing season was closed in all inland waters, which included creeks and mill ponds, until May 10. A rock fish dinner was served local Rotarians at their weekly meeting. The dinner represented a debt paid to the winners in an attendance contest in which John Graham's side won out over Cal Kramer's group. Doris Jean Leary received property on the corner of a superior rating in the junior music festival of the Federation of Music Clubs of the Northeastern District held in Edenton. That Edenton Boy Scouts would be better able to carry on their activities was assured when 28 local citizens agreed to join a Boy Scout Booster Club and make a monthly contribution for its operation. The R. L. Chesson suit against the Plymouth Pulp Mill was again called in Superior Court. Twice before the suit for damages resulted in verdicts in favor of Chesson, but met with reversals by the Supreme Court. On the opening day of a term of Superior Court a brief service was sponsored by the local Legion Post in consecration of the two flags which graced the judicial rostrum on both sides. John A. Hokmes, superintendent of schools, a Legionnaire, spoke historically of the two flags, emblems of the United States and the state of North Carolina. Judge John J. Burney, also a Legionnaire, made a stirring address in eulogy of the two emblems. The Edenton Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. R. Graham White, at which time Mrs. White reviewed the New York Flower Show held at Grand Central Palace in New York, which she attended. Dr. F. H. Garris, who for over two years served as health officer for the Bertie-Chowan Health Department, tendered his resignation to resume private practice in his home town of Lewiston. The senior class of Chowan High School presented their class play, "Sunshine." Chowan County joined with the rest of the nation in counting noses in the decennial census to determine the population of the United States. The six enumerators for Chowan County were: Mrs. E. W. Spires, Mrs. Warner Evans, Mrs. T. L. Ward, Mrs. R. F. Elliott, Mrs. A. M. Day and George Privott. Calvin Andrew Haste, 78, died very suddenly at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Dail. Miss Rebecca Colwell, county home demonstration agent, and J. W. Crawford, farm agent, met with a group of young people in the Community House at Cross Roads for the purpose of forming an Older Youth Service Club in Chowan County. Mrs. Percy Smith and Miss Jessie Byrum were appointed temporary chairmen. A grand jury report revived a recommendation that central heat be installed in the Court House to eliminate a great fire hazard. "The value of this building is inestimable and it would be a reflection for Christmas, but no holiday on our present generation should we allow it to burn when at a modest expenditure it could be protected," it was stated in the report. 20 YEARS AGO John F. White announced that he would be a candidate for County Representative in the General Assembly in which he was opposed by Mrs. Raymond Carr. At a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors, the results of a recent poll conducted among Edenton merchants in regard to holidays was announced. The holidays were Easter Monday, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and two days and it would be a reflection for Christmas, but no holiday on New Year's Day. At a meeting of the Chowan Rod and Gun Club, Ray

The Shell Game

Seems that when the Scotch Bonnet heard it had been named as North Carolina's official shell, it took issue at the honor and almost deserted the state's beaches.

Since then, however, the shell apparently had a change of heart (or was it a change of mussel?) and has returned to the seashore by the hundreds.

This spring and summer don't be Scotch — put on your bonnet, drive to the beach, and pick up a few for yourself . . .
