

DR. J. H. HORTON

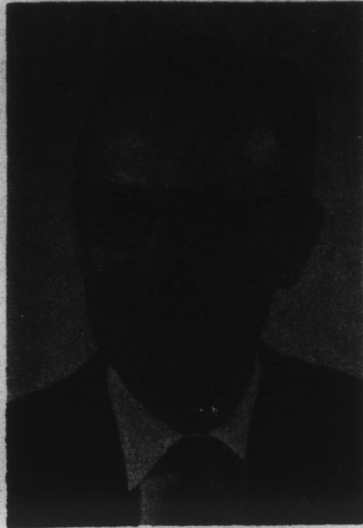

Dr. J. H. Horton, local dental surgeon, is seeking election to Edenton - Chowan Board of Education after serving on the interim board. He was a member of the Edenton City board when the two administrative units merged.

A native of Edenton, Dr. Horton graduated from local schools, St. Augustine College in Raleigh and received his dental degree from Howard University in Washington, D. C.

He served two years in the U. S. Army Dental Corps and was discharged with the rank of captain.

He is a member of the vestry and treasurer of St. John's Episcopal Church. He has served as a member for years on the Board of Trustees and Executive Committee of St. Augustine College.

Dr. Horton is an original member of Edenton - Chowan Good Neighbor Council which he now serves as chairman.

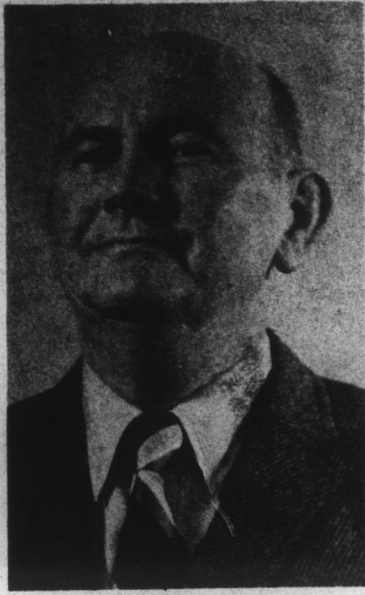

DR. A. F. DOWNUM, SR.

Dr. A. F. Downum, Sr., was a member of the Chowan County Board of Education when it was merged with Edenton City Unit. He now seeks election to Edenton-Chowan Board of Education.

He is a graduate of Duke University and Southern College of Optometry. He is a past president of Edenton Lions Club and former master of the Masonic Lodge and chairman of the official board of Edenton Methodist Church.

Dr. Downum served in the U. S. Navy in World War II. He served on the Governor's Task Force Study Group on Education.

In a statement he said: "Having served on the school board for six years, I feel rewarded by the fact that much has been accomplished toward providing better educational opportunities and facilities for our young people. It is a continuing process, however, and sound judgment, experience and dedication must prevail in order that all our young people might have the very best training."

O. C. LONG, JR.

O. C. Long, Jr., was chairman of Chowan County Board of Education at the time it was merged with the Edenton City Board and has served as vice chairman of the combined boards. He is seeking re-election from the Second Township.

A native of Perquimans County and educated in schools there, Long moved to Chowan County in 1945. He has been associated with Leary Brothers Storage Company since moving to the county.

A member of Rocky Hook Baptist Church, he is a deacon and has served in many capacities. He helped organize the Boy Scout Troop there and served as scoutmaster for 21 years.

Long was elected to the Chowan County board in 1961 and was elected chairman in 1965. His present term expired in December.

In a statement, Long said: "Serving Chowan County as a member of the Edenton-Chowan Board of Education is a privilege for which I am grateful. In announcing my candidacy for re-election to this office, I wish to thank all the people for their special interest and cooperation in supporting the educational program of our county. And as long as I am privileged to serve as a member of the board of education I shall, to the best of my ability, strive to support and maintain the best quality educational program for all of our children that this county can afford."

EMILY G. AMBURN

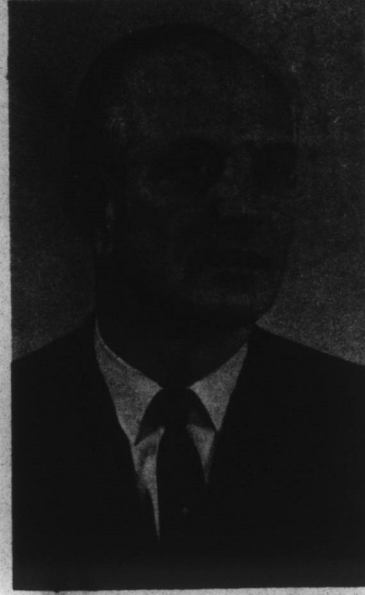

Mrs. Emily G. Amburn, 104 West Gale Street, is seeking her first political office in a race for the Edenton-Chowan Board of Education.

Mrs. Amburn is a native of Pikesville, Ky., but moved to Statesville in her teens. She graduated from high school there and later from Charlotte Memorial Hospital School of Nursing.

She is married to L. F. Amburn, Jr., publisher of The Chowan Herald, and the mother of five children. She is a member of Edenton Methodist Church, the Garden of Eden Club and has participated in many community projects since coming to Edenton in December, 1964.

While in Statesville she was active in the Junior Service League and received the Clubwoman of the Year award there.

The candidate states that she has a strong feeling about the importance of quality public education and would like to serve the community and its youth by being on the board of education.

CHARLES B. MORGAN

Charles B. Morgan, 112 West Queen Street, is a 38-year-old painting contractor who is seeking a seat on the Edenton-Chowan Board of Education.

He attended Edenton public schools, graduating in 1952. He served four years in the U. S. Air Force.

Morgan was a member of Edenton Jaycees for 10 years, serving as vice president, treasurer and a member of the board of directors. He is a member of Edenton Lions Club and a member of Edenton Baptist Church.

He is married to the former Ann Agnew and they have three children.

DR. ALLEN HORNTHAL

Dr. Allen Hornthal, who opened an office in Edenton for the general practice of dentistry, is one of eight candidates for four seats from First Township on the Edenton-Chowan Board of Education.

Dr. Hornthal moved here after being discharged from the U. S. Navy.

He is a graduate of Tarboro public school and received his undergraduate and graduate work from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Dr. Hornthal is a member of Edenton Rotary Club and a vestryman at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. He and Mrs. Hornthal are sponsors of the Young Churchmen.

He is married to the former Lindsey Britt and they have one daughter. The Hornthals reside on Twiddy Avenue.

SAMPLE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY BALLOT

For Judge District Court and County Officers

INSTRUCTIONS

- To vote for a candidate on the ballot make a cross (X) mark in the square at the left of his name.
- If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to the registrar and get another.

For Judge District Court First Judicial District

(Vote for One)

- JOHN F. WHITE
 WILTON F. WALKER, JR.

For Clerk Superior Court

(Vote for One)

- LENA M. LEARY
 RALPH E. PARRISH

For Sheriff

(Vote for One)

- CARROLL A. BOYCE
 TROY TOPPIN

For County Commissioner First Township

(Vote for One)

- J. WALLACE GOODWIN, JR.
 N. J. GEORGE

For County Board of Education First Township

(Vote for Four)

- THOMAS PAUL GRIFFIN
 EMILY G. AMBURN
 CHARLES B. MORGAN
 A. F. DOWNUM
 D. F. WALKER
 ALLEN L. HORNTHAL
 JOHNNIE H. HORTON
 EDWARD G. BOND

Second Township

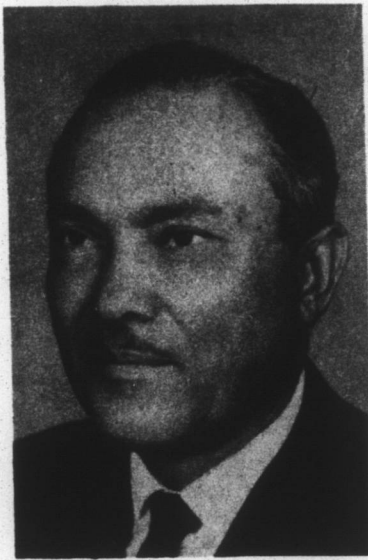

(Vote for One)

- O. C. LONG, JR.
 CARLTON W. GOODWIN

Primary Election, May 2, 1970.

Mrs. George C. Hoshino

Chairman Chowan County Board of Elections

D. F. WALKER

D. F. Walker is the retired principal of the school in Edenton which bears his name. He was principal of the school for 36 years.

A native of Alabama, he was educated in schools there and received degrees from Talladega College and Hampton Institute as well as New York University.

His first teaching assignment was in 1929 as principal of Northampton County Training School in Garysburg, later moving to Edenton, where he was principal until his retirement in 1968.

He has been active in Red Cross, Boy Scouts and other civic activities in the area. He has held office and been in numerous educational and professional organizations.

Walker said:

"After 36 years of principalship at the D. F. Walker School, I am still dedicated to the proposition that the total development of the pupil and the fostering of the best education is essential for the growth and prosperity of our county, state and nation."

CARLTON GOODWIN Second Township

THOMAS P. GRIFFIN

Thomas Paul Griffin, 38-year-old farmer, resides on Route 3, Edenton, and is seeking a seat on Edenton-Chowan Board of Education. He is a native of Chowan County and graduated from local public schools.

Griffin was in the National Guard for 12 years and is a former member of Edenton Jaycees. He is engaged in a family farming operation.

He is a member of Macedonia Baptist Church; was on the board of N. C. Peanut Growers Association for four years, N. C. Agriculture Foundation for four years and served as president of Chowan Farm Bureau for four years and is presently secretary-treasurer.

Griffin also served on the agriculture committee of Albemarle Area Development Association for four years.

He is married to the former Lois Jean Jones and they have two sons.

Official Democratic Primary Ballot

FOR

MEMBER OF CONGRESS

AND

STATE OFFICERS

(FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT)

INSTRUCTIONS

- To vote for a candidate on the ballot make a cross (X) mark in the square at the left of his name.
- If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it to the registrar and get another.

FOR MEMBER OF CONGRESS First Congressional District

- WALTER JONES
 JES NIXON

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS

(Vote for One)

- A. A. (FRED) HEDRICK
 HARRY C. MARTIN

State of North Carolina
Primary Election
May 2, 1970

Chairman, State Board of Elections.

SAMPLE BALLOT

For Special Election Held In the Town of Edenton on May 2, 1970

- To vote for or against the questions the voter should make a cross (X) mark in the appropriate squares appearing below.
- If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and get another.

FOR

the ordinance authorizing $375,000 of bonds to finance the extension, improvement and enlargement of the system maintained by the Town to provide a supply of water to said Town and its inhabitants by the construction of water treatment facilities, facilities providing for an increased supply of water, water storage facilities and the extension of water lines, including the acquisition and installation of the equipment, machinery and apparatus required therefor and the acquisition of the necessary lands or rights-in-land, and a tax therefor.

AGAINST

FOR

the ordinance authorizing $225,000 of bonds to finance the extension, improvement, and enlargement of the sanitary sewer system maintained and operated by the Town for the collection and disposal of sewage by the extension of sewer lines, including the acquisition and installation of the equipment, machinery and apparatus required therefor and the acquisition of the necessary lands or rights-in-land, and a tax therefor.

AGAINST

Mrs. George C. Hoshino

County Board of Elections
Chairman.