

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

Sometimes it's hard to be happy,
When you're sick and hurting, too,
But you'll find a glorious rainbow
When the storm of pain is through.

I've had some very rough days and some days are very bright. Needless to say, I'm very happy for what the Lord has given me. Sometimes He has this way of bringing us closer to God.

A Few Hints

I have received so many nice cards sent to me and they mean so very much. Having visitors means so much, too. Thanks so much for the loving, kind friends.

Home Decor Tips: Color experts say that light blues, grays and greens will give a feeling of space and coolness to a room.

Celery rubbed over the hands after peeling onions will remove the odor.

10 Drunk Driving Cases On Weekly Court Docket

Ten drunk driving cases were on the calendar for the regular weekly session of Chowan County District Court on July 14. Judge Elton Aydtlett of Elizabeth City presided.

Action taken during the lengthy session, at which Solicitor Wilton Walker prosecuted the docket, included: John Wallace Hassell, failure to comply with a previous order, complied.

Joseph Byrum, assault on a female, probation revoked. Don Wayne Spear, unlawful speed competition, 30 days, suspended upon payment of $50 fine and costs.

Haywood Bond, Jr., drunk driving, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs. James Solomon Woodle, drunk driving, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs. Notice of appeal given and bond set at $250.

Charlie Walter Paylin, improper muffler, $10 fine and costs. Charles Clyde Pittman, drunk driving, leaving the scene of an accident and liability insurance, six months, suspended upon payment of $200 fine and costs. Notice of appeal entered and bond set at $500.

Randy Dale Surgeon, drunk driving, not guilty.

James William Honeyblue, speeding, failure to stop for a blue light and reckless driving, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs.

Johnnie Robert Lawson, inspection law violated, costs. Robert Warren Byrum, drunk driving, four months, suspended upon payment of $150 fine and costs. Notice of appeal entered and bond set at $300.

James Calvin Coston, failure to yield right of way, prayer for judgment continued upon payment of costs.

Rodney William Jernigan, speeding, $10 fine and costs. Ira Alphonza White, reckless driving, $25 fine and costs.

Louis Edward Francis, failure to comply with restrictions on driver's license, $10 fine and costs.

Thomas Osmond Harrell, traffic violation, costs. Fred Perry, violation of town ordinance, 30 days, suspended upon payment of $25 fine and costs and move trailer from lot by August 1. Notice of appeal entered and bond set at $200.

Douglas D. Burnette, traffic violation, $25 fine and costs.

FRAME IT, THEN HANG IT: CREATIVITY FOR WALLS

A bare wall is an invitation to creativity. It can be decorated in any manner since, like the rest of the home, it is a reflection of what the lady of the house likes. There are no rules about what to hang on walls. The Picture and Frame Institute says that if it can be framed, it may be hung.

A favorite piece of fabric, a child's drawing, a postcard from a friend (either side), a poster, a button collection, a poem, pressed flowers, a butterfly—each of these can be framed to hang alone or in an arrangement with framed art prints, mirrors, plaques and other wall accessories.

It's easy to create a wall arrangement. First, lay out the framed pictures and favorite things on the floor, building around one key picture or mirror. Place the key picture towards the center of the group with smaller ones arranged around it, or balance smaller framed articles alongside the larger picture. Keep moving items around until the effect is pleasing.

It's always safe to make the group even across top and bottom, but the Picture and Frame Institute assures that with careful balancing borders can be uneven and the arrangement will still have good design. Remember not to hang pictures too high and never to hang one small picture alone on a large wall area.
