

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

When trouble seems to get you down
And you carry a countenance covered with frowns,
Stop — just a moment, let the sunshine in,
Your day will be happier from without and within.

This is really true. I've tried it. It works!
I'm recuperating slowly but surely. No one will let me be negative, so the positive side will surely win.

One of my favorite people about town is Dolores (Mrs. Rev.) Earnhardt. She is such a happy person, always thinking and doing something nice for someone. It's happiness to know her.

There's so many wonderful things happening to me these days that I can hardly contain myself. Visits from friends far and near, with the best of conversations and communication. Two friends in particular, Kristen and Tommy Kehaves, who find time in their busy lives to come visit me, showing me the miracle of the love of God. Soon they'll be returning to Alaska, where Tommy will serve in the Episcopal Parish for another year. They are truly an inspiration to many.

Someone very special in our town will soon re-marry. We all love her and wish her much happiness.

Miss Lena Jones, who is everyone's favorite, and Miss Ruby Felts are on their way abroad once more. They travel by ship this time and will embark at Southampton, England and from there they will be traveling in 10 countries. Miss Lena, who is youth eternal, will no doubt be a wonderful traveling companion for Miss Felts.

My visit to the Chowan Hospital last week was painful at times, but attentive care from all the nurses, I came out feeling much better. Edenton folk should be proud and happy to have such a fine staff of doctors and nurses.

No recipes, but a few hints:
Musty clothes closet odors can be removed by placing an open container of household ammonia in a pan of water and leaving it in the closet over night.

To get the smell of varnish or paint out of a dish cabinet, leave a sliced onion over night.

A cheap chipboard is ideal for cleaning fish. The clamp holds the tail tight.

To remove coffee stains from a glass coffee maker, brew a pot of tea in it.
