SOMETHING BLUE — The season is short for the big Carolina blueberries in the cake, making an interesting variation on the shortcake theme to enjoy while fresh blueberries are available.

Fresh peaches deserve all the praise given them in such expressions as "pretty as a peach" and reference to someone as having "peaches and cream" complexion. Carolina peaches are with us and the prices are far more reasonable than in Queen Victoria's time when the fresh peach was the mark of a high-fashion dinner in England and one peach cost a guinea or $5.

As far as we are concerned, peaches need few trimmings. Plenty of milk or cream, a bit of sugar and rosy fresh peaches make about the best dessert ever. They are used at our house over ice cream and on our breakfast cereal.

We got a few pointers from the N. C. Department of Agriculture 'on peach arithmetic which is helpful. One pound of peaches equals three medium peaches, two cups sliced and one cup crushed. You can proceed on that basis. To prevent peaches from darkening, sprinkle sliced or cut peaches with lemon or orange juice or commercial ascorbic acid which is available at the grocery store.

Use North Carolina fresh peaches in these recipes:

Peachy Parfait
1 1/2 cups cottage cheese.
1 1/2 teaspoons almond extract.
1/2 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons sugar.
1 cup heavy cream, whipped.
2 cups sliced sweetened peaches.

Peach Mousse
Slivered salted almonds.
Beat cottage cheese until smooth; add almond extract, salt and sugar. Mix well. Gently fold whipped cream into mixture. Alternate layers of cheese mixture with cut peaches in parfait glasses, ending with cheese mixture. Garnish with a few slivers of almonds. Chill thoroughly before serving. Makes six servings.

2 cups soft mashed peaches. ing. Top with ice cream or 1 cup whipping cream, whipped cream. Makes six to eight servings.
1/2 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon vanilla. Another Carolina product now in abundance is blue-
Peel and mash peaches, Chip cream, adding sugar, berries. There are many good things to be made with just until it will hold its shape. Fold in peaches and blueberries such as this short-vanilla. Put in freezer tray cake we show you for to-day's dessert. The season is short so use them while you may.
Quickie Deep Dish Peach Pie
5 cups peeled, sliced fresh peaches (about 8).
2 tablespoons flour.
1/2 cup sugar.
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.
1 tablespoon butter.
1 pkg. ready-to-bake refrigerated cookie dough.
Mix peaches, flour, sugar and cinnamon. Put into eight-inch square baking pan. Cut butter into small pieces over top of peaches. Arrange one-fourth inch slices of cookie dough in rows over top of peaches. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Cool about two hours before serv-
Blueberry Spice Shortcakes
Topping
1 cup blueberries.
1/4 cup sugar.
1/4 cup water.
Cake
1 pkg. yellow cake mix.
2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice.
2 eggs.
1 cup water.
2 cups blueberries.
2 teaspoons grated orange rind.
Filling
2 pkgs. vanilla pudding and pie filling.
1 cup blueberries.

Belch - Jackson Married

The marriage of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Belch and Michael Earl Jackson was solemnized Sunday afternoon, July 26, at 3 o'clock at Center Hill Baptist Church.

The church was decorated with palms and candlelight with bouquet consisting of white gladioli chrysanthemums and majestic daisies.

Rev. M. B. Motts performed the double-ring ceremony with Rev. Henry Napier assisting.

Wedding music was presented by J. C. Boyce, Jr., organist, and James Robert Boyce, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Belch, Sr., of Tyner. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jackson of Edenton.

Given in marriage by her brother, Elliott Luther Belch, Jr., the bride wore an empire asteline dress of white organza over white taffeta with lace and pearl insets. The long full sleeves had wide cuffs with lace and pearl insets. The A-line dress had a long train which started from the neck line in a full length. The head-piece was bridal pearls with a full length veil. The bride wore pearls which was a gift from the bridegroom. The bride carried a Dutch colonial bouquet of white daisies with sweetheart roses in the center.

Miss Janice Ward of Edenton was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Louise Louette Mond's of Tyner, Miss Cynthia Jackson of Edenton, Miss Vickie Goodwin of Tyner and Miss Hazel Miller of Windsor.

Bambi and Mandi Belch, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls.

Lester Jackson, father of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Ushers were Edward Goodwin, T. C. Byrum, III, Isaac Harrell, Jr., and Danny Ashley, all of Edenton.

Mrs. J. C. Boyce, Sr., of Tyner was the mistress of ceremony.

The bride's mother chose a green linen dress with a lace coat with matching accessories. She wore a yellow cymbidium corsage.

MRS. MICHAEL EARL JACKSON

Belch - Jackson Married

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue knit dress with matching accessories. She also wore a yellow cymbidium corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Center Hill Community Building.
