

Rep. Griffiths
Keynote Speaker

Mrs. Martha W. Griffiths

Rep. Martha W. Griffiths of Michigan, who will be the principal speaker at the banquet of the fall conference of Democratic women of North Carolina in Raleigh October 2, is the chief strategist in the recent passage by the U. S. House of Representatives of the proposed constitutional amendment to guarantee equal rights to women.

A veteran political campaigner who first was elected to the House in 1955, Mrs. Griffiths is a former Detroit judge who is one of only 10 female members of the House.

Her address will highlight the 50th anniversary of woman's suffrage and will follow a business session on Friday afternoon and reception at the Executive Mansion where Mrs. Robert W. Scott will receive those attending the two-day conference.

Sargent Shriver, former ambassador to France, will be the concluding speaker of the conference at a luncheon on Saturday. Mrs. Margaret Harper, Democratic executive committee vice chairman, will preside at the sessions. The Wake County Democratic Women, headed by Mrs. C. Gordon Maddrey, are hosting the conference.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to everyone our heartfelt appreciation for the kind consideration shown to us during our time of sorrow. Every act of kindness will always be a treasured memory during our lives. May God bless each and every one of you.

THE FAMILY OF
MARGARET E. SPIVEY.

750 Veterans
Now in Chowan

There are 750 veterans in Chowan County and 531,000 in North Carolina, according to Veterans Administration figures released today. These figures are based on America's 27.3 million former servicemen as of the beginning of 1970, according to W. R. Phillips, director of the Winston-Salem VA regional office.

According to the latest available figures, some 30 Chowan County and 71,000 North Carolina veterans were in service during the Vietnam era—that is after August 4, 1964.

World War II veterans make up the largest group of veterans with 530 from Chowan County and 283,000 from North Carolina.

Some 20 Chowan County and 62,000 state veterans saw military service only between the Korean conflict and the Vietnam era (February 1, 1955-August 4, 1964), Phillips said.

Of 26,000 World War I veterans in North Carolina, 60 are from Chowan County.

Phillips pointed out that there are some duplications in these figures since some veterans served in more than one conflict.

An estimated 66 of American's 5,000 Spanish-American War veterans live in North Carolina.

Veterans with questions on benefits are urged to contact their North Carolina VA regional office at Winston-Salem or to see their local service officer.

Those who served since February 1, 1955, may be eligible for GI Bill training. Those who served since June 27, 1950, may be eligible for home loans.

It is far worse to send untrained men into battle than to train them and not need them.
