Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Povlich of Taylor, Mich., the bridegroom attended schools in New Jersey, a graduate of Ashley High School in Gastonia.

MRS. RICHARD GARY POVLICH

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza and imported Venise lace styled in empire silhouette. The lace bodice featured an Edwardian collar of lace scrolls. Venise lace topped the bishop sleeves and trimmed the deep cuffs. The full skirt softly gathered at sides and back. Detachable Watteau train caught to a butterfly bow and spread chapel length. Cathedral length veil of imported English tulle caught to a spray of organza petals and silk florets. She carried a white Bible given by her grandmother topped with white roses, stephanotis and valley lilies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jimmy Potts, cousin of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Stroup of Alexis; Miss Rebecca White of Greenville; Miss Susan White of Richmond, Va., the latter two are cousins of the bride.

The bridegroom had his father, Clarence Povlich of Taylor, Mach., as best man. Ushers were Daryl Hutchins of Gastonia, Ken Costner of Gastonia, Don Chance of Concord, Dany Carpenter of Gastonia and Danny Baker of East Grand Forks, Minn.

Following a trip to Daytona Beach, Fla., the couple will be at home at Fern Forest Apartments, Fern Forest Road, Gastonia.

MRS. CHARLES EDWARD McMILLION

Wallace-McMillion Vows

In a setting of palms and candlelight, Miss Barbara Ann Wallace was wedded to Charles Edward McMillion of Portsmouth, Va., on August 23 at Macedonia Baptist Church. Rev. Virgil Wilson performed the double ring ceremony.

The wedding music was presented by Alton G. Elmore, soloist, and Mrs. Robert Cherry, organist.

Given in marriage by her brother, William Edward Wallace of Greenville, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hettie Wallace of Edenton. The parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Porter McMillion of Portsmouth, Va.

The bride was wearing a traditional formal gown of silk organza over peau de soie. The curved empire bodice, highlighted with designs of Swiss embroidered, was fashioned with modified scoop neck outlined with scallops of Venise lace and Bishop sleeves ending in wide cuffs enhanced with applique designs of lace and scallop edged. A center panel of appliques embellished the bodice and the semi-control shirt was adorned with scattered motifs and border of lace.

Her veil, double mantilla of silk illusion with pouf back caught to a miniature open crown, was framed with lace and adorned with embroidered designs on the full cathedral length. She carried a bridal bouquet of daisies centered with roses.

Miss Hettie Lynn Wallace was her sister's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Robert Winborne of Edenton; Mrs. Gerald George Iverson of Newport News, Va., and Miss Nancy Lou Parker of Jacksonville.

Mr. McMillion was his son's best man.

Head usher was Gerald George Iverson of Newport News, Va. Groomsman were: Stephen Cox and Glen Jones of Greenville and Phil McMillion of Portsmouth, Va., brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Whit Parks was mistress of ceremonies.
