I watched the tower taking place,
As tall as the engineer,
Then all of a sudden it tumbled down,
But there was never shed a tear:

Instead he changed his little mind
And made a train he had in mind,
Blowing the whistle all the while
Grandmother was enjoying it with a big smile.

After lying at the nicest little dog like a wire-haired window here in the hospital, terrier or a plain terrier. how could one help but be Anyhow, a small long haired happy? I am feeling wonderful now, but also feel the necessity for a few more days here. Dorothy comes down from Elizabeth City a few days a week, but when she's gone I miss her so very much.

Come to see me. I love company and I do get very lonesome sometimes.

Homecoming At Aces-Gates Game

"A Time for Us", theme song from Romeo and Juliet, was the theme of the 1970 John A. Holmes High School homecoming.

Representing the four grades in the Homecoming Court were Misses Judith Austin and Betsy Harrell, freshmen; Misses Robin Lane and Cynthia Dozier, sophomores; Misses Bernie Armstead and Bettie Brooks, juniors; and Misses Kim Easterling and Elizabeth Harris, seniors.

The representatives were given a silver charm by the Future Homemakers of America Club, sponsors of the activities. Presenting the charm was Miss Nancy Twiddy, president of the club.

After the football game a dance was held in the gym.

As a general rule, very little intelligence is demonstrated at a cocktail party talkfest.
