

Edenton Woman's Club Contributes To Hospital

Furnishings for another room at the new 61-bed Chowan Hospital have been made possible by a $1,000 contribution last week by Edenton Woman's Club.

The check was presented to Thomas M. Surratt, hospital administrator, by club officials.

Surratt expressed the continued community support of the new facility, dedicated Sunday afternoon at 2 P. M.

Following is a resume concerning the origin of the Negro organization:

Mrs. Fannie A. Parker, who wanted to make her community a better place in which to live by enriching the lives of the people by encouraging them to become aware of their needs culturally, aesthetically, economically and provide a wholesome recreation for the youth, invited the following ladies to her home in September, 1945, for the purpose of organizing a club.

Girl Scout News

By Pat Bond, Scribe

On Tuesday, October 13, the girls had a Court of Honor. Our troop, No. 757, and Troop 719 were in the ceremony. On a table were three green candles and 10 yellow candles. The green candles stood for the three parts of the promise and the yellow candles stood for the laws.

Mrs. Stutzman gave the patrol leaders their patrol cords. We sang songs to end the meeting.

FAMILY CAR
Joe White permits his 18-year-old son to use the family car on a date. The son, while carelessly and negligently operating the automobile injures Sam Black. May Black recover from Joe White a judgment for the personal injuries he has sustained?

Yes. In North Carolina and a limited number of other states there has been adopted what is known as the "family purpose doctrine" in respect to automobiles.

Under this doctrine, the owner of an automobile, which is furnished to the members of the owner's family for their convenience and pleasure, is held liable for the negligent acts of any member of the family who might be driving it for pleasure with the consent, express or implied, of such owner.

The relationship created is that of principal and agent, existing between the owner of the family automobile and the member of his family driving it. By placing the automobile at the disposal of the family, the owner makes the pleasure of the family his affair and business.

Sam Black should be able to recover damages from either Joe White or his son. A minor child is liable for the personal injuries he negligently causes another. The son is liable in this case because he is the actual wrongdoer. The father is liable because it was his agent that caused the injury.

Bill Brown permits his 18-year-old son to use the family car for the purpose of attending a football game in Virginia. If the son negligently injures Tom Grey while driving the automobile in Virginia, could Tom Grey recover damages from Bill Brown?

No. Virginia does not have the "family purpose doctrine" in respect to automobiles. In Virginia, the son would be liable but not the father.

This Is The Law By Robert E. Lee

The District of Columbia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New Jersey are among the other jurisdictions that do not have the "family purpose doctrine".

College Honors Edenton Resident

The names of five outstanding athletes, a former coach and a former publicity director were added to the Waynesburg (Pa.) College Sports Hall of Fame in connection with the 1970 homecoming day ceremonies Saturday.

The athletes are Arnold Koepeke of Trafford; Nick George of Edenton, both for football; the late George Karmarkovich for basketball and whose mother resides near Johnston; George Lewis of near Sharon, for wrestling and George (Sooner) Shelton for track and who resides at Bridgeton, N. J.

The former coach is Dr. James M. Miller, the school's first wrestling mentor and currently residing at Sarasota, Fla., and the publicity director is John L. (Bris) O'Hara, who still resides at Waynesburg.
Induction ceremonies were held prior to the kickoff between Waynesburg and Geneva College.
George wound up his career in 1941 and played with brilliance at guard in many of Waynesburg's most notable periods of football greatness. His style and accomplishments put him years ahead of his generation.
