Letters Directed To The Editor

On October 14 all grades at Chowan Academy went on a tour of the new Chowan Hospital. This was a treat for all students and teachers but especially special for the younger children. When the hospital is in operation children under 12 will not be permitted to visit.

We were so impressed that busy people such as Mr. Tom Surratt, administrator; Mr. Bruce White, management engineer; Mr. Jim Blount, pharmacist; Mrs. Barbara Cale, director of nurses; Mrs. Kaye Bunch, secretary, and Mrs. Marina Crumney, office manager, took the time to guide our groups through the hospital, explaining everything and answering our many questions.

We enjoyed the entire trip which took us to all parts of the building from maternity ward to morgue. The operating rooms, the emergency room and the amazing instruments of the intensive care rooms impressed us all. Several articles of interest were the electric beds (we even got to try them), anesthesia machines, the heart and pulse recorder and the large X-ray machines. Each room has a telephone a TV and an intercom to talk with the nurses' station. The kitchen and cafeteria were beautiful.

We thought the new hospital was wonderful. It will improve the health care of Chowan County, Edenton and the entire area. If we should become ill, we will receive treatment that is better than any hospital in Eastern North Carolina.

We enjoyed our trip very much. It was very educational and we feel that we are very fortunate to have such a fine hospital with such modern facilities.

Thanks to Mr. Surratt and his staff.
 —The Eighth Graders of Chowan Academy.

Flanagan, Wallace Shine For ECU

GREENVILLE—Dwight Flanagan, a former star for the Edenton Aces, turned in one of his most outstanding performances for East Carolina University Saturday as the Pirates went down, 14-12, to Southern Illinois.

Another former Edenton star, Billy Wallace, scored both ECU touchdowns.

Coach Mike McGee was high in his praise of the performance of Flanagan, who has been hampered by injuries. In the game, Flanagan caught five passes and has an average of 18 yards per catch.
