MRS. GEORGE NIXON, JR.

Miss Sadler, Mr. Nixon Exchange Marriage Vows

In a double ring ceremony at 7 P. M. November 3, in the First Christian Church, Miss Janet Lee Sadler became the bride of George Nixon, Jr. The church was decorated with white flowers, palms and candelabras.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sadler. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nixon, Sr.

Rev. E. C. Alexander officiated. Mrs. James Edwards, aunt of the bride, was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length dress of white textured crepe accented with shantilly lace around the neckline and cuffs of the long bishop sleeves. Her fingertip veil of nylon tulle was attached to a tiara set with pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with white sweetheart roses, bakers fern, nylon tulle with streamers of satin ribbon.

Mrs. Carolyn Nixon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Kathy Byrum, cousin of the bride, was her bridesmaid.

Mr. Nixon, Sr., was his son's best man. Terry Nixon, brother of the bridegroom, and Al Byrum were groomsmen.

Mrs. Sadler wore a dress of gold knit. Her corsage consisted of a beige cymbidium orchid trimmed in brown to match her accessories. Mrs. Nixon chose a dress of mint green knit. Her corsage consisted of a green cymbidium orchid trimmed to match her accessories also.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Ben Owens, Mrs. J. A. Lane, Mrs. Roger Lane, Mrs. Blanche Brickhouse, Ellis Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Sadler and Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards and children.

Students Vote On Candidates

By Anne Erwin

The students in Room 40 at Ernest A. Swain Elementary School are having an election.

We are divided into two groups, the Rams and the Colts. The candidates for the Rams are Amy Phillips for president and Chuck Small for vice president. The candidates for the Colts are Marcus McClanahan for president and Chris Jordan for vice president.

The voting took place on Wednesday and the winners will take office for the rest of the school year.

Amy Phillips is going to work hard. A lot of people think she's capable. So who knows—she may win! Chuck Small is helping Amy all the time. He's making
