MRS. FRED THOMAS CASTELLOE

Griffin - Castellor Vows Said In Local Church

The wedding of Miss Alma Kay Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alma Griffin of Edenton to Fred Thomas Castellor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Castellor, also of Edenton, was solemnized at 3 P. M. in the First Christian Church of Edenton on Sunday, November 22.

The church was decorated in a profusion of emerald green palms, white gladioli, mums and chrysanthemums. A 12-taper candelabra formed the background for the wedding altar with additional 4-taper candelabra to either side.

The vows were spoken before Rev. E. C. Alexander.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white satin. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline and long sleeves, tapering to points at the hands. Re-embroidered alencon lace encircled the neckline and was highlighted in a panel of the "A" line skirt, which swept into a full chapel train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was arranged from a forward headpiece of lace petals, encrusted with pearls and crystals. She carried a crescent bridal bouquet of white chrysanthemums and sweet-
