

4-H Achievement Night Held; Winners Awarded

 Dress Revue—Joan Jordan. These 4-H'ers received ribbons and certificates at district activity day in June.
 Steve Sawyer was presented a framed certificate as recognition for winning "honorable mention" in a national 4-H poster contest.
 Awards of appreciation were presented to friends of 4-H. Those who have supported 4-H in so many ways. The five awards went to Peoples Bank, accepted by Thomas Peele; Chowan Herald, accepted by Bud Amburn; Edenton Jaycees and WCDJ radio, accepted by Robert Dail and Coble Dairy, accepted by Bob Hutchinson. Many more firms have supported 4-H and will be recognized later.
 The 4 Leaf Clover Club and

Hudson Road Club were awarded club charters. Gold anniversary seals were presented to Oak Grove and Ryland Junior Clubs. Other clubs will be given theirs as soon as requirements are met.
 The blue award group won medals. These 4-H'ers have done unusually well in project work.

Why?
 Small Brother—Mr. Golden, are you a baseball player?
 Mr. Golden — No, Willie, I'm not. I know very little about the game.
 Willie—Then why did Sis tell Ma you were such a good catch?

Health Tip OF THE WEEK

No anti-biotic or other drug can halt a full-blown case of tetanus — about 60% of those afflicted die. Yet ¼ of our adults are not immunized. In a free-bleeding cut, tetanus spores are usually washed out. The deep puncture, such as from a nail — or a scrape or cut with dirt imbedded, is most prone to tetanus. Make a doctor appointment to immunize your family against tetanus.
