Feeding an Idea

When Walter Anderson, working at the amusement park snack bar in Wichita, Kan., as a short-order cook, pressed his spatula down on the meatball to flatten it one day in 1920, he created the all-American hamburger.

Shortly afterward Anderson and Billy Ingram scraped up $700 to open their own restaurant. The hamburger caught public favor as they expanded into many outlets named the White Castle.

Last year this chain served 206,753,209 hamburgers, and 45 million cups of coffee.
