Chowan High Honors Athletes

Chowan High School held its athletic banquet recently and outstanding athletes were honored and all players were recognized. Guest speaker for the occasion was Jerry Lee Hawkins, coach at Chowan College in Murfreesboro.

He talked on the 12 points of attitude as relayed in a poem. He also told the students and guests to be proud of whatever "you do because you don't realize how much you can do or the impact of your being on others."

Hawkins continued, saying, "always strive to do your best and by doing so you would reach the high goals you set for yourself. He commented that in 10 years look at yourself in the mirror and see if you are proud of what you have made of yourself."

Receiving awards in basketball were Rhonda Bass and Don Bass, best defensive; Patricia Perry and Waverly Westbrook, most valuable players, and Sheila Byrum and Guy Holley, sportsmanship awards.

Receiving baseball awards were Paul White, most valuable player; Don Bass, leading hitter; and Larry Parks, sportsmanship.

A special trophy was awarded to Bill Bunch, son of the late William C. Bunch. The special trophy is named the William C. Bunch Trophy and will be awarded annually to a student with outstanding abilities.

Presenting the award was Principal Gilliam Underwood. Coach Harry Land made the basketball presentations and John Ward made the baseball presentations.

"best seller" beyond compare—surviving where others have fallen—and that should tell us something, in this highly literate age.

For the source of the Bible is infinity; its goal is rooted in infinity; its value is beyond price.

Its goal is to make men of the world into men of GOD; to produce spiritual maturity where it is necessary—a wide field, indeed) and to equip mankind for the continuing work of Christ.

How much we can learn—how much we MUST learn!

Miriam White, 73, Dies In Ahoskie

Mrs. Miriam Montague White of Colerain died at the age of 73 at Roanoke Chowan Hospital Friday, after an extended illness.

A native of Bertie County, she is the daughter of Mrs. Johnnie Wickings and John M. White, and the wife of Manly H. White.

Surviving besides her parents and husband are a sister, Mrs. Carl B. Sessoms of Colerain. A funeral service was conducted at Colerain Baptist Church, where she was a member, Sunday at 2 P. M., with Rev. Benie Pledger officiating with assistance from Rev. C. R. Breden.

Burial followed in Hillcrest Cemetery in Colerain. Willford Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Our advice: When you have a good profit, take it; let somebody else ride the wave to the top.

Old, Yet Always New . . .

One of the newest and most interesting attractions to be developed in quite a while in our area is the Roanok Indian Village at Roanok Island Historical Park between Fort Raleigh and the Umstead Bridge, near Manteo.

Its real-life demonstrations of ancient Indian arts and crafts, flint chipping, arrow and pottery making, and housekeeping methods should be of interest to both young and old.

Don't let many moons pass before you see and enjoy it . . .
