

Forthcoming Split Waterfowl Season Is First For This State . . .

RALEIGH — "You can't make them all happy, but we try," was the statement of Orville Woodhouse, director of the Office of Fisheries and Wildlife Resources.

Woodhouse, who is also a member of the Wildlife Resources Commission and chairman of the commission's waterfowl committee, was referring to a history-making decision on the part of the commission to choose its first split waterfowl season, and for the first time in years a shorter season with a larger bag limit.

The first segment of the split season lasts only three days, November 23-25; the second runs from December 5-January 20, the latest date allowable under a framework established by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries and Wildlife.

The daily bag limit for ducks may include not more than four mallards, one black duck and two wood ducks, or any combination of these as long as the limit of five is not exceeded. Two bonuses on ducks are allowed this year. From December 5-13 two blue-winged teal will be allowed in addition to the regular bag. In commercial fishing waters east of U. S. 17 two scaup ducks will be allowed daily however, this does not apply to Core Sound between Drum Inlet and Harkers Island, Pamlico River above a line between Pungo River and Goose Creek and Currituck Sound.

Shooting hours for waterfowl will again be from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset, and the usual rules against shooting over bait or using live decoys or electronic duck or goose calls will apply. So-called duck stamps will cost $5 this year.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank each one who has been so kind to us during our stay in the Chowan Hospital and Nursing Home since May 1st. For all the beautiful cards and every act of kindness we are most grateful, especially your thoughtfulness on the 12th of August when you remembered us with cards, gifts, flowers, cakes and coming in to visit with us on our 50th wedding anniversary. We were so thankful to be together even if we could not be at home. We ask you to keep remembering us in your prayers. May God's richest blessings be with all of you.

AMBROSE AND

Byrums Honored On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Byrum of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., were honored at a surprise 35th wedding anniversary supper at the Evans' beach cottage on Tuesday, August 15, given by his brothers and sisters.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Byrum, Velvo Byrum of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and Mrs. Norman Winslow of Suffolk, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Selby Byrum of Gates County; Melver Byrum, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Byrum and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Roberson and Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Byrum and Leon of Tyner; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Evans, Jimmie and Janise, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Evans, Lisa and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans, David and Chris, Mr. and Mrs. Don Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Topplin, Jennifer and Timmy of Edenton; Mrs. Cleve Chappell, Wanda and Elaine, Mrs. Robert Hollowell, Jr., Paul, David and Neil of Gates, and Debra Long of Edenton.

"We had a choice between a 50-day season with a basic bag of ducks of five per day, and a 60-day season with a bag of only three," Woodhouse said. "And although we have traditionally taken the longer season, the 60-day season would have meant a 40 per cent reduction in the bag limit," he added.

Woodhouse said sentiment among hunters heard from was two to one in favor of the shorter season with a larger bag allowance.

The commission was given no choice with regard to the goose season. The bureau al-
