

Turner Is Given Union Camp Grant

Harold Lee Turner, a June graduate of Gatesville High School, has been named the 1972 Union Camp scholar according to an announcement by resident manager, John D. Mumford.

Turner, who lives with his parents on Route 1, Gatesville, will be the recipient of a $1,200 grant to be used toward his education at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. An additional grant will be made to the university in his name.

Turner was valedictorian of his class and played varsity football and basketball at Gates. He was a member of the Beta Club, French Club, Pep Club, Monogram Club, the Student Council and was on the school newspaper staff as well as vice president of the Future Teachers of America.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Haywood A. Turner and he is a member of the Gatesville Baptist Church, where he is active in the Youth Fellowship and the Youth Choir.
