

News From Arrowhead Beach.....

By Eleanor F. Jackson

The Chowan Rurians, that well known civic organization, arrived Monday night for a supper prepared by the women of Bandon Chapel. Serving 32 appreciative men the food they asked for in advance, proved a pleasant experience all around.

There was vocal entertainment, too, supplied by local talent. Janet Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Harrell, with Lou Ann Bunch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lloyd Bunch, were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Robert Cherry. They sang "Phiff-You Was Gone" in outfits befitting the song made famous by Archie Campbell and Gordie Tapp on the "Hee-Haw" television program.

the superintendent had been called out of the state, when the regular teachers, regular musical accompanists, even the regular secretary, were all among the missing.

Until G. Douglas Tise, chairman of the building committee and pinch hitting for the superintendents—until he introduced Mrs. Hollis Copeland (Lavern) adult class teacher from Rocky Hock Baptist Church, to teach the lesson, few, if any knew who would do so.

Mrs. Copeland followed the general outline for International Sunday School lessons, dealing with "The Bible In Our Changing Times." Her happy expression reflected an inward glow of faith and conviction. And for her well-come presence, Bandon Chapel has Mrs. Percy Nixon (Dorothy) to thank.

As has been said before in this column, one member must wear many "hats" in a "beginning" church, such as Bandon Chapel. In this respect, Mrs. Gus H. Perry filled in for the organist and for the secretary, also absent. Mrs. Gibson Hicks became the secretary pro tem. Having Kent Rowley available to lead in the singing rounded out a perfect Sabbath.

SCREECHES

CARE OF RECORDS — In order to serve the maximum number of patrons with these rather fragile materials, it is necessary to ask for cooperation in the care of the records. Most of these suggestions are just a matter of using common sense and consideration:

1. Please use stereo records only on a stereo player.
2. Make sure you are using a good needle.
3. Never leave records in automobiles — the sun will warp them.
4. Store records vertically, away from heat, out of the sun.

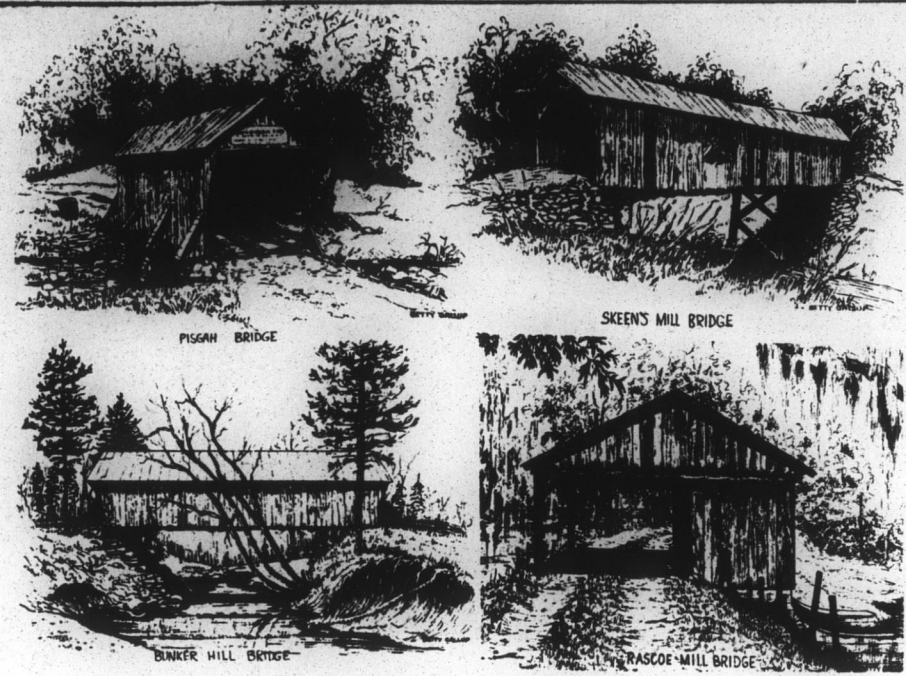

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank our many friends for all acts of kindness rendered to us during our time of bereavement. The food, flowers, visits and other tokens of love helped tremendously. Your prayers helped to sustain us during this sad time.

FOUR COVERED BRIDGES REMAIN IN N. C.

Shown on top are the Pisgah Bridge and the Skeen's Mill Bridge, both in Randolph County. At lower left is the Bunker Hill Bridge in Catawba County, and at lower right is the Rascoe Mill Bridge in Bertie County. Drawings by Betty Gallup.

Covered Bridges Are Fading Away

"Weathered monuments to the imagination, ingenuity and determination of our 19th century settlers" is how the Southern Covered Bridge Association describes the four remaining covered bridges in North Carolina—where once there were hundreds.

Traditionally it has been thought that the concept of the covered bridge was introduced to North Carolina by Ithiel Town, an architect from New Haven, Conn., who also helped to design our capitol in the 1830's. He is most noted for the "Town Lattice" mode of bridge construction which was patented in 1820 and was widely used as far south as Mississippi. His first bridge in North Carolina was built across the Yadkin River between Salisbury and Winston-Salem.

Discovery of the Rascoe Mill Covered Bridge in Bertie County, however, may re-juries sustained by the blast Sunday. He was taken to Albemarle Hospital in Elizabeth City, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. As well, his passenger and two people in the other vehicle were injured. They were also taken to Albemarle Hospital.

Investigating patrolman B. G. Price reported that Bunch was driving at an excessive speed when the other car, operated by Richard Garland Kinton, pulled out from Charter Motel into the path of Bunch.

Earl Wagner, Bunch's passenger, is listed as in serious condition. Mrs. Diane Kinton, pregnant wife of Richard Kinton, was hospitalized for observation. Kinton's 70-year-old grandfather, Commodore Kinton, was also treated for injuries.

Mr. Bunch is survived by his wife, Wanda Mizelle Bunch; his mother, Addie Holmes Bunch; his father, Joseph Z. Bunch; one son, Allen Bunch one daughter, Freda Bunch; one brother, Zane Bunch; two sisters, Mrs. Bertha Mizelle, and Mrs. Faye Harrell.

Willford Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements with a funeral service in Willford Memorial Chapel Tuesday, officiated by Rev. Paul Hawkins of Immanuel Baptist Church, where Mr. Bunch was a member, and Rev. Russell Rice. Burial followed in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

One of these days there will be a way to discover the truth. Meanwhile, we must grope for it the best way we can.
