

Bank Promotes Ben McDonald

JACKSONVILLE—Ben McDonald, veteran newspaper and TV personality who has held marketing positions with Bank of North Carolina, N.A., for the past seven years, has been elected assistant vice president and also assigned to the president's office.

The action was taken at a meeting of the bank's board of directors in Hendersonville and announced by J. Hugh Rich, president of the $325-million banking system.

McDonald has received numerous awards in the marketing field. Among them was a coveted "gold coin" award by the Bank Marketing Association in 1968.

His achievements in marketing date back to his establishment of a public relations office in Wilmington after being discharged from the Air Force in 1946. He later served on the news staff of radio station WMFD and was news director of WECT-TV in Wilmington.

He was recruited by former bank president Mitchell F. Allen, Jr., to establish a public relations department for the bank, which at that time was known as First National Bank of Eastern North Carolina.

Later he served as the bank's special events director and ultimately was assigned to set up a marketing department in recognition of his outstanding achievements in the special events field.

Breakfast Makes A Difference

A good breakfast does make a difference. Scientific studies at the University of Iowa proved that people of all ages who eat breakfast are more mentally alert, have faster reaction times and generally work more efficiently in the late morning hours than people who exclude breakfast. Do yourself a favor and get off to a good start each day. Take time, eat a better breakfast. September is Better Breakfast Month.

ELECTED TO POST — Joe W. Garrett, Commissioner of the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles, has been elected president of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators. The election and installation ceremonies were conducted at the 40th annual conference which was held last week in Wichita, Kan.

College of the Albemarle Satyrs' forthcoming production of "Theodosia" will be held at 7 o'clock today (Thursday) in the COA gym-auditorium.

The play, to be presented during the second week in November, is based on the life of Theodosia Burr, the mysterious, ill-fated daughter of Aaron Burr. According to Lucy Vaughan of the COA Speech and Drama Department, the script for the production was prepared by Susan Graham Irvin Williamson of Charlotte, the daughter of a senator and the widow of two senators. The writer, therefore, spent much of her life in Washington where she found an abundance of reference material on the Burr family.

The play begins when Dr. John Poole of Elizabeth City finds a beautiful painting in a fisherman's shack at Nags Head. This portrait of a young lady—the same one the playwright could remember seeing when but a child—was of the beautiful Theodosia

Wish I'd Said THAT

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank all my relatives and friends who remembered me while I was a patient in Chowan Hospital and since I have been back home with their special prayers, visits, gifts, flowers, cards and all other acts of kindness shown me. Also I want to thank Dr. Baker and the wonderful nursing staff for the services they rendered during my stay in the hospital. This is my way of saying thank you all so very much.

Mrs. Margie M. Lassiter.
