Hammett-Trenholm Vows Miss Teenager Pageant Planned

HAMPTON, Va.—Miss Jo Melony Hammett became the bride of David Jennings Trenholm in a 4 P. M. ceremony September 2 in the garden of the Strawberry Banks Manor House. Rev. Daniel K. Ivey officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Hammett, 525 Fox Hill Road, Mr. Trenholm is the son of Mrs. David Bernard Trenholm of Newport News, Va., and the late Mr. Trenholm.

The bride is also the granddaughter of Mrs. J. W. Griffin of Edenton and the late Mr. Griffin.

Attendants to the bride were: Miss Carol Ann Johnson of Yorktown, Va., maid of honor; Mrs. Joseph H. DeSantis of Hampton, Va., matron of honor; Miss Sydney Lee Lewis of Blacksburg, Va., and Miss Kathryn Dawn Murchison of Wilmington, bridesmaids, and Miss Kimberly Ann Griffin of Edenton, cousin of the bride, flower girl.

Gilbert G. Via, III, of Newport News was best man. Groomsmen were: Lt. George H. Ritko of Ellsworth AFB, S. C.; Trent Taylor of Newport News and Williamsburg; Lt. Jeffrey D. Guild of Fayetteville; Lt. David A. Lawrence of Bergstrom AFB, Tex., and Robert D. Grossman of Buena Park, Calif.

Mrs. Charles E. Cunningham of Grafton was mistress of ceremonies.

The bride is a senior at Old Dominion University. The bridegroom is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute and is now serving as food services officer at Langley AFB.

Following a trip to Florida and Georgia, the couple is living in Hampton.

Young Ladies of this Area Invited to Enter the Miss North Carolina Teen-Ager Pageant to be Held at the White House Inn, Charlotte, April 6-8, 1973.

The Miss North Carolina Teen-ager pageant is the official state preliminary to the Miss National Teen-ager pageant to be held in Atlanta, Ga., on September 1, 1973.

The invitation was issued this week by Mrs. Sybil Shaffer, executive director of the Miss North Carolina Teen-ager pageant. The reigning Miss North Carolina Teen-ager is Teresa Rivera of Havelock.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic achievement, leadership, poise-personality and beauty. There is no swimsuit or talent competition.

The winner of the Miss Carolina Teen-ager pageant will receive a scholarship, other prizes and an all-expense paid trip to compete in the Miss National Teen-ager pageant.

Any teen-ager interested in entering the Miss North Carolina Teen-ager pageant may write for further information to Mrs. Shaffer, 215 Piedmont Avenue N. E., Atlanta, Ga. 30312, or call area code (404) 659-4610 or (404) 659-8964.

Women Are Cited At Club Meeting

Chowan Democratic Women recognized five outstanding members and heard a talk about the national convention in Miami, Fla., at their fall luncheon meeting Tuesday.

The meeting was held at Edenton Restaurant with Mrs. W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., president, presiding.

The club recognized Mrs. Lena M. Leary, clerk of Superior Court, who has received life memberships in the National and International Associations of Probate Judges.

Other outstanding Chowan Democratic women recognized were: Mrs. Bertha Bunch, register of deeds; Mrs. George Hoskins, chairman, Chowan County Board of Elections; Mrs. Joseph Thorud, elections board executive secretary, and Mrs. L. F. Amburn, Jr., a member of Edenton-Chowan Board of Education.

Guest speaker was Mrs. George Wood of Camden, a delegate to the national convention. Forty-two members enjoyed an informative talk by Mrs. Wood. She fielded questions about the convention for approximately one hour.

The N. C. Democratic Women's convention will be October 6-7 at the Durham Hotel.

In addition to Mrs. Earnhardt, Jr., officers for this year are:

Mrs. Leo Katkavek, first vice president; Mrs. George A. Byrum, second vice president; Mrs. Edward G. Bond, third vice president; Mrs. W. H. Winborne, treasurer; Mrs. Earnhardt, Sr., recording secretary, and Mrs. Thomas Leary, corresponding secretary.

Mooney-Adams Vows Exchanged

Triple Family Reunion Is Held

Chowan County high school students, especially juniors and seniors, are invited to open house at N. C. State University on Saturday, October 14.

Open house is an annual affair of the School of Agriculture and Life Sciences and the School of Forest Resources. In addition, two other schools—the School of Engineering and the School of Physical and Mathematical Sciences — will open their doors to visitors this year.

The occasion is designed especially for career-minded high school students, parents, teachers, counselors, alumni and other adults interested in NCSU.

R. M. Thompson is chairman of a Chowan County open house committee, which is handling local arrangements for people who want to attend.

Exhibits, tours and discussions by students and faculty members will be featured at the open house.

CHANGE IN DATE

The Dismal Swamp trip for the Garden of Eden Club has been changed from October 3 to October 10. All members are requested to meet at the parking lot of Edenton Baptist Church by 8 A. M. the day of the trip.

Chain Locks Add Sound

Sound effects have been added to the familiar chain door lock.

A new device just introduced uses the customary case-hardened chain recommended by police departments to bar burglars but also contains a shrill battery-powered whistle loud enough to 1) frighten the intruder and 2) alert either the occupant or his neighbors. The household can activate or deactivate the device with a key, so it can deter burglars whether he is at home or away.
