Later in the day a field owned by Connie Monds yielded an official harvest of 146.8 bushels per acre of Pioneer 3388A corn.

Local School Teachers Praised By Dr. West

Recently this column dealt with the goals of the Edenton-Chowan Schools. They were that each student graduating from our schools would: —possess a specified level of reading and mathematical competency. —develop a positive attitude toward learning. —possess a positive and accurate self-image. —demonstrate responsibility and accountability for his behavior.

We cannot talk about the kind of graduates we want without giving attention to and paying tribute to those dedicated individuals who make things happen in the classroom—our teachers. Not too many years ago, the world of learning was very compact. The classroom of yesteryear was typically isolated from the mainstream of the world's progress. The teacher was considered a source of information or "fount of knowledge" with little competition from newspapers and magazines. Today, however, the work of a teacher is much more complex. Our teachers are just as dedicated, if not more so, and are better prepared than their predecessors. Yet, on every hand he and his pupils are continually assailed.

However, our teachers are not dismayed, defeated nor overwhelmed by all this. On the other hand, our teachers make use of these eagerly and effectively. In addition to the above, teachers must stay abreast of the rapid changes in subject matter. They must teach all day, with additional duties of study hall, playground or other extra curricular activities supervision. They gulp down lunch while supervising lunchroom activities. At night he or she must grade papers, as well as conscientiously plan classroom activities and gather learning materials which will stimulate and motivate each student to do his best in school.

Teachers must perform all of these demanding duties with enthusiasm, zest, zeal and tendered with seriousness of purpose. They teach knowing they are second guessed by "experts" who do not have their responsibility nor duties and who have not been in the teacher's shoes. Yet regardless of all this, we have the finest teachers to instruct your children. Somebody in this world must care. The teachers in the Edenton-Chowan Schools do. They teach because they care about your child. They have a very sincere desire to make our community a better place to live. They believe that service to others must be their top priority. Sometimes in the hustle and bustle of our daily activities, we forget to salute and pay tribute to those public servants who are striving to give our nation the intellectual power necessary for the maintenance of our national security and economic growth. Your school officials are confident that you join them in paying tribute to those who are teaching our nation's future leaders and who practice the concept of "people helping people."

CARD OF THANKS
The family of W. W. Perry wishes to express their sincere thanks for the many prayers, visits, cards, flowers, food and other deeds of kindness extended to us during the illness and death of our loved one. It was a great help in our time of sorrow.

Bones Hinder Or Help Dog Club

Most bones aren't good for dogs, reports the Gaines Dog Research Center, but bones can be either good or bad for dog clubs. There are three basic kinds of bones that are bad for clubs and only one kind that is good.

The bad bones are: The Wishbones, who spend all their time wishing someone else would get the work done.

The Jawbones, who spend all their time talking instead of working.

The Knucklebones, who find fault with everything that everyone else tries to do. The good bones are: the Backbones, who get right to work when they see that a job needs doing.

To help your club, advises the center, be a good "bone."

RESPONSIBLE DEMOCRATS REJECT McGovernGalifianakis

McGovernGalifianakis WELFARE GIVEAWAYS

When President Nixon tried to limit welfare spending, McGovernGalifianakis both voted to waste more taxpayer dollars.

McGovernGalifianakis HIGHER PRICES

Worried about the cost of living and higher food prices? McGovernGalifianakis both voted for the same inflationary schemes. After McGovernGalifianakis voted to override President Nixon's vetoes, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce singled out Mr. Galifianakis as the only "Big Spender" among North Carolina's eleven Congressmen.

McGovernGalifianakis ONE AND THE SAME

Mr. Galifianakis is 1,000 percent behind George McGovern, according to the Williamston Enterprise. Nationally syndicated columnist John Roche points out that Mr. Galifianakis is "in ideological terms close to George McGovern."

Don't you agree the McGovernGalifianakis voting record proves it?

McGovernGalifianakis CUT AND RUN

When Mr. McGovern attempted to tie President Nixon's hands in negotiating a Vietnam peace settlement, Mr. Galifianakis followed Mr. McGovern's lead on four separate occasions—voting to cut and run. On the vital issue of keeping America strong, Mr. Galifianakis was closer to Mr. McGovern than any other Congressman or Senator representing North Carolina.
