

CHOWAN FTA ACTIVE IN TUTORIAL PROGRAM—Members of the Chowan High Future Teachers of America are volunteering their time each day to aid students in improving their level of reading. In the picture on the left, Lou Ann Bass and Millie Bunch (background) work with Gloria Holley and Dennis Dickens. To the right, Joan Jordan gives special tutoring to Randy Lane who is able to hear only with the aid of headphones.

Chowan Students Teaching Reading

Chowan High students are participating in a Student Tutorial Program sponsored by the Chowan Chapter of the Future Teachers of America. Nineteen volunteer members of the FTA are working with particular students one hour per day with the main objective of helping these students improve their reading skills.

Various reading skill builders are used. One of the favorites with the instructors, as well as students, is a version of the popular television quiz game "Password." Word meanings, spelling, pronunciation and phonetic skills are only a few of the applications of the approach to reading development.

Macedonia Youth Conduct Services

By JANE BASS

Last Sunday the Macedonia Baptist Church Youth Choir was in charge of the service at the Ebenezer Baptist Church in South Mills. The choir, directed by Miss Nancy Hare, sang a portion of the musical "Tell It Like It Is," written by Ralph Carmichael.

The service also consisted of testimonies given by the youth. The group is accompanied by Miss Thelma Goodwin, pianist, and Buddy Lowe on the drums.

On Sunday the youth will conduct services at their home church. Bruce Copeland will be the guest speaker Sunday morning, and the youth will present a play Sunday evening entitled "The Choice Is Yours."

Services begin at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

Why Do You Think God Gave You Life?

By ANN MILLER

To use it as just an everyday thing. He thought you needed. A way to enjoy yourself. Chance to learn right from wrong. To learn to give and take. To go your way and God go His. Could it be because He loved you? Maybe He just wanted to see how you liked it. To love Satan and not God. Or to judge others. I feel this way God gave us life, so that we may have eternal life in Heaven. He loved us enough to die for us. Yes, life is an everyday thing. But everyday should be spent for God. Life gives you a chance to learn right from wrong.

Life doesn't mean for you to go your way and God go His. Suppose God went His way and left you alone and didn't care. There would be no chance for life in Heaven. Life is a gift from God. God loves you, so why not let Him know you appreciate it. Just take a little time and thank Him. God loves you, so why go Satan's way? You have a choice, God or Satan. Remember, friend, "God is Love." Satan is trouble.
