

Bandon Notebook

OLDER YOUNG FOLK preaching, what pictures are to a book or newspaper. Bandon Chapel Youth Fellowship held its second meeting on January, Saturday 27, at 1 o'clock. One visitor and two new members were welcomed. The group has passed the planning stages and is ready for action. Craft projects will begin next week.

Says Mrs. R. J. (Pat) Rountree. "Our church needs lots of young people and lots of young people need our church. We will welcome them."

"No ALIBIS WITH GOD"

The above was the subject of the senior class' lesson on Sunday. Mrs. H. Truston Bunting taught, and there were some thoughtful views offered by William F. Smith and Jackson Strickland from their places in the congregation.

After the service, when nearly everyone moved toward Fellowship Hall, for a bit light refreshment, it was mentioned that two names had been omitted last week from this column.

Talk about alibing! How easy to let others assume that The Chowan Herald had done so. But in checking the duplicate sheet, kept at home...the culprit was none other than "yours truly." Of course Mr. and Mrs. G. Douglas Tise were among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Dilday, Jr on the happy occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary. Makes one feel humble indeed to see how such errors of omission can occur.

ANOTHER ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Rusboldt, of Arrowhead Beach, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ziemba of Creek Trail.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Dilday, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Owen Pate, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert White and of course, the Ziembas. All attend Bandon Chapel.

CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER

On the first Sunday of each month Bandon Chapel warmly welcomes Rev. Bennie Crawford of Edenton, to administer to its spiritual needs...in other words, to deliver the sermon.

The sincerity of his messages is felt by those assembled. Sidights from his personal experience are, to his

Remember 11 A.M. February 4! THE CLASS MEETING

On Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock, members and others interested in the progress of Bandon Chapel's Sunday School will meet in Fellowship Hall, as usual. It's never a late session and always enlightening. The bit of refreshment and conversation afterward wind up an important hour or two.

TRAVELING COUPLES

There will be four absentees from their elective duties beginning on Sunday, February 11. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Bunting and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Tise will be vacationing in Florida, probably until the first week in March. Both couples will hitch trailers to their cars and travel the route together as far as possible...at least to Daytona. Some of the spots to be visited are Cape Kennedy (formerly Canaveral), Miami, Tampa, the Keys, Fort Pierce, Orlando and the Disney World. Mrs. Tise will go to St. Petersburg to visit her mother.

They have diligently arranged to have excellent substitutes during their absence. On February 11 and 25 William F. Smith will take Mrs. Bunting's place in the adult class, as will B. Kent Rowley. February 18 and March 4, if the travelers have not returned.

On all dates, Mrs. R. J. Rountree (Pat) will fill in for Mrs. Tise in teaching the juniors.

Series Continued At Baptist Church

Dr. William C. Butts will continue his series of sermons Sunday at Providence Baptist Church on the subject: "Miracles of Jesus". The topic this week will be: "The Miracle of Healing the Ten Lepers", which is the fourth in the series of six sermons.

Church school begins at 9:30 A.M., with Charlie L. Downing, Sr., director.

The Board of Christian Education will meet following the morning worship service and the Building Committee will meet at 5 P.M. The Deacon and Trustee Board will meet in a special session at 6 P.M. There will be an evening vesper this Sunday.

Young people do not have to copy the examples of their parents, fortunately.
