Holmes Drama Class Ready For 2-Night Stand

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" will open tonight (Thursday) in Holmes Auditorium at 8 o'clock. This three-act comedy by Moss Hart and George Kaufman will be presented again tomorrow night by the Holmes Drama students, under the direction of Mrs. Sandra Boyce. The comedy in the play stems from an accident. Sheridan Whiteside, portrayed by Robert Wright, is a successful radio and television personality. While visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley, played by Rob Roy Holmes and Michele Roberson, Whiteside falls and breaks his hip and must remain with the Stanleys for two weeks. To say the least, Mr. Whiteside is not a willing guest. His irate behavior as well as the many interesting guests who pay him visits create a lot of fun. A touch of romance is added to the play with Whiteside's secretary, Maggie Cutler, played by Renee Hunnicutt, falls in love with the local newspaperman, played by Kel Elmore. Other performers include Wendy Crandall as Lorraine Sheldon, Robert Parker as Beverly Carlton, Walter Byrum as Professor Metz, Calvin Vaughn as Dr. Bradley, Chris Elliott, Alice Hines, Jason Weeks, Sue Stutzman, Art Stevens, Debbie Burroughs, Nelson Cheers, Wanda Johnson, DeAnne Morgan, Alfield Bembury, Clyde Spear, and Terry Williams. The Holmes Drama students have been preparing for this performance for the past few weeks and Mrs. Boyce says she feels they are ready for a fine performance. The public is cordially invited to attend the performances. Tickets are $1.50 adults and $1 students and may be purchased from cast members or at the door.

Letter To The Editor

The Edenton Little Theater needs people interested in: Directing, producing, stage managing, stage set designing, stage set construction, lighting, painting, sound, properties, costume designing, costume or other sewing, make-up, music, choreography, prompting, acting, publicity and other areas. If you are knowledgeable in these areas or if you want to learn about them, we need you! The little theater is now reading plays for our 1973-74 season. If you have suggestions we want them! Contact Ross Inglis for straight plays or Mrs. Jim Bount for musicals. Remember Saturday, April 14. The Readers Theater will be performing in the Holmes Auditorium at 8:15 P.M. "The Wilde Night" will be presented only 10 times and Edenton is fortunate to have one of these performances. Mrs. James Martin.
