

From The Kitchen Of The Chowan Herald

By MILDRED HUSKINS

Pretty soon the bride will have returned from her wedding trip and be in her new apartment.

She is on her own. That is a frightening thought but, also it can be fun. Probably the most frightening experience is when Mother drops in for lunch just to see how things are going . . .

even more so is when the mother-in-law accompanies her with the two of them just checking to see if you're settled. They really expect to be treated to a peanut butter 'n jelly sandwich but you can turn the tables on them with these petite souffles.

Since souffle creation is nothing more than careful attention to direction, read the recipe carefully and follow it faithfully. Practice at your leisure. Some night when you're feeling creative, you could make five little souffles then freeze them for unexpected occasions.

When the unexpected guest or guests arrive just pop the frozen souffles in the oven. Each triple-cheese souffle is worth its weight in protein and would be handy to serve up to that new man in your life when he is home for lunch or for Sunday night supper. Balance the meal with a fresh lettuce, tomato and cucumber salad, a basket of hot rolls and pats of butter. Cold milk or tall glasses of iced tea complete a nutritious meal.

Three-Cheese Souffle
Grated Parmesan cheese
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash cayenne pepper
1 cup milk
1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese

1 cup shredded Swiss cheese
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
6 egg yolks
6 egg whites
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar

Sprinkle enough Parmesan cheese in five well-buttered 10-oz. souffle dishes to coat bottom and sides evenly; remove any excess. In 1 1/4-quart saucepan melt butter; blend in flour, salt and cayenne pepper. Remove from heat; stir in milk. Heat to boiling, stirring constantly. Boil and stir one minute. Remove from heat and stir in cheeses until melted. If necessary, return to low heat to finish melting cheeses. (Do not boil) Blend a little of hot mixture into egg yolks; return all to saucepan and blend thoroughly. Transfer sauce to large bowl. In a small mixing bowl beat egg whites until foamy. Add cream of tartar and beat until soft peaks form. Fold egg whites into cheese sauce. Turn mixture into souffle dishes, filling three-fourths full.

For variation, fill three souffle dishes three-fourths full with cheese mixture. Add approximately one-third cup chopped cooked poultry or seafood or chopped, cooked, well-drained broccoli or spinach to the remaining mixture and fill two other souffle dishes three-fourths full. For immediate service, bake one or more souffles in preheated 350 degree oven 30 to 35 minutes. Serve immediately. Carefully wrap remaining unbaked souffles in freezer wrap and freeze up to one month. To bake frozen souffle, unwrap and place directly from freezer into preheated 300 degree oven for about one hour and 10 minutes. Recipe make five souffles.

If there's a movie in town you've been wanting to see, call up another couple or two and go. Then invite them back to the house for a late, light supper starring hot Cheese 'n Bacon Wafflewiches. Use the convenient frozen waffles and top them with a zesty, full-bodied cheese spread. The Wafflewiches makes satisfying, hearty fare and call for the simplest accompaniments such as an assortment of vegetable relishes and perhaps some plump ripe strawberries for sugar dunking.

Cheese-Bacon Wafflewiches
6 bacon slices
2 pkg. (3 oz. each) cream cheese
1/4 lb. American cheese, grated
1 tablespoon chili sauce
6 to 8 drops liquid red pepper seasoning
1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen waffles
Heat oven to 400 degrees. Pan-fry bacon until crisp; drain on absorbent paper. Beat together cream cheese, American cheese, chili sauce and red pepper seasoning until well blended. Crumble bacon into mixture and stir until combined. Place waffles on cookie sheet. Heat about seven minutes or until crisp and hot. Spread each waffle section with cheese mixture. Return to oven about five minutes or until thoroughly heated. Makes six servings.
