

NATURE TRAIL ADDED TO CAMP'S SUMMER PROGRAM Nature Trail Enhances Camp Summer Program

Billy Jackson, Camp Cale Council Chairman of the Chowan Baptist Association, reports that the addition of a Nature Trail has been a real asset to the camp's recreation program this summer. He relates that boys and girls attending the camp have a real opportunity to see Mother Nature at her best.

The new outdoor attraction was installed as a result of a cooperative agreement with the Albemarle Soil and Water Conservation District and is part of a total Resource Conservation Plan developed for Camp Cale. The idea being to conserve, enhance and contribute to the on going programs offered to boys and girls from throughout the Albemarle area who attend during the summer sessions. Other items in the plan include the grading, reshaping and seeding of a play area to be used for softball and other outdoor activities. The seeding and vegetation of the recently sloped bank behind the bulkheads installed for shore erosion control is also planned in the near future.

Assisting the district, the Nature Trail was marked and laid out by Soil Conservation Service personnel and with cooperative efforts of the N. C. Forest Service points of interest were established which included the labeling and identifying of various tree species. The Nature Trail, being over a mile long, has cross paths which accommodate parts or all of the study area. The trail runs through the Camp's beautiful upland hardwood forest and borders several natural swamp areas. Pictured is a group on one of the tours through the nature study area.

Although frontal collisions are the most frequent types of accident, side collisions and rollovers are by far the most dangerous as measured by the extent of damage to the automobile and the actual occurrence of severe or fatal injuries, according to the National Safety Council.

A Prophet's Ponderings

Every now and then someone lifts his head to shout, "Don't worry, all of us have a little bit of God in us, and everything is going to work out fine!" I don't know about you, but I have discovered that I often have a whole lot of the devil in me.

Evidently, the Apostle Paul recognized a conflict in his own personal life between the forces of evil and the forces of good. Paul found himself doing what he ought not to be doing and not doing what he ought to be doing. (Romans 7:18-19). In fact this conflict became so bad that Paul calls himself a "wretched man" (Romans 7:24).

Paul found the solution to his conflict in a personal relationship to Jesus Christ (Romans 7:25). The forces of evil are not overcome by claiming to have a little bit of God. The forces of evil can be conquered only as the individual is possessed by the Lord God Almighty. The important relationship does not center around how much of God do I possess, but how much of me does God possess.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Thomas Jernigan who passed away August 8, 1953.

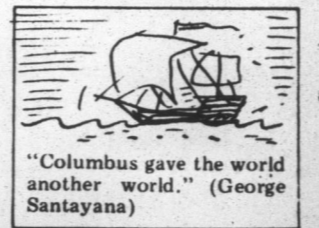

Little did we know that night when we left you
What sorrow the day would bring us.

The end was sudden, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.

You went away without farewell,
You said goodbye to none.
Your loving hands will toil no more,
Your work on earth is done.

Your weary hours and days of pain
And troubled nights are past
And in our aching hearts
We know you have sweet rest at last.

Sadly Missed,
Wife & Children

IS THE CHURCH PART OF YOUR LIFE?

OUT OF THE TRAP

The game of golf reveals something fundamental in the character of man. For when man builds a golf course he deliberately creates hazards for himself. He builds his fairways between clumps of trees . . . dots them with bunkers and sand traps . . . often terraces his greens with confusing slopes. The whole idea—to make things harder for himself!

It is this same trait in human character that constantly concerns our churches. Christianity doesn't teach that life can be—or should be—easy. It teaches us that hazards must challenge us to choose the right way. And it teaches men how to recover from their mistakes—with God's help.

For thousands who find themselves in one of the traps of life . . . our religion offers precious help and reassurance.
