

Bandon Notebook By Eleanor F. Jackson

By ELEANOR F. JACKSON

For a 30-day month, September reached into six different months this year. By the time it's over, Bandon Chapel will have had 14 activities. County them: Two double sessions of church and Sunday school; three single sessions; election of board members; four B. C. W. G. meetings; one covered dish supper and a supper for the Chowan Ruritans. It's been a month when many of the workers, that ever-willing-to-help-group, has had to double up for those who have taken belated vacations.

Some who have returned are the Buntings, the Churches, the Waters, to name a few. But now others will be off. In a small church everyone is missed and welcomed when they return.

Last Sunday morning G. Douglas Tise again took over in his capacity of assistant superintendent of the Sunday School. Meredith Barden gave the opening prayer, Mrs. Gus H. (Myrtis) Perry played the organ, Mrs. H. "Trus" (Margaret) Bunting taught the seniors and Mrs. G. "Doug" (Evelyn) Tise, the juniors. Ushers included R. Carlyle Gilliam, Fred W. Jolly, Gus H. Perry and Henry J. Skinner.

Prayers were asked for the health of the following: R. E. Bagley, Elbert Beach, Berlynne Blanchard, Louise Byrum, Minnie Ferguson, C. H. Pierce, Mr. Reynold's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Rich, Earl Rowley, Pat Weston and A. T. Whiteman. (Mr. Whiteman's operation on his eyes was satisfactory. Now it's arthritis that's holding him down!)

As Mr. Tise remarked, "We have had some soul-searching lessons this month, which we would do well to remember." These are the titles, all setting forth the heart of the Gospel of Jesus, as proclaimed by Paul: "Paul Speaks to a Divided Church", "God's Wisdom for Man's Folly", "Unity at the Lord's Table", "Ministers of Reconciliation" and next week, "Good News for Sinners."

It turns out that the Bandon Chapel Women's Guild has changed its plans. They do expect to meet today (September 27) in Fellowship Hall. Even though you read this after the meeting begins, 11:00 A.M., come if you can, at least for lunch. It's this writer's alphabetical turn to be hostess and it won't come around again for months and months.

As far as known, Dr. W. J. B.

Livingston will be at Bandon Chapel on October 7, to preach one of his always enlightening sermons. As you probably know, church begins at 11:00 A.M. 15 minutes after Sunday School classes adjourn. Communion will be offered and new members accepted.

October 2, which is the first Tuesday of the month means the class meeting at 7:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall. Let's have the large attendance again that came last month. It will see the newly elected officers in action.

Mrs. Parks Taken In Death

Mrs. Henrietta Lane Parks, 82, Route 1, Tyner, died at 2:15 A.M. Monday in Chowan Hospital after an extended illness.

Mrs. Parks was owner and operator of a general store in Ryland until her retirement. A native of Chowan County, she was born August 25, 1891, daughter of the late William and Rachel Chappell Lane. She was the widow of Roy R. Parks.

Surviving is a brother, Hosea Lane of South Weymouth, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Verna Jordan of Norfolk, Va.; and two foster sons: Rev. L. T. Chappell of Tyner and Thomas E. Jackson of Urbana, Va.

She was a member of Happy Home Pentecostal Holiness Church where funeral services were held at 3 P.M. Wednesday. Rev. Harold C. Leake and Mrs. Eula Harrell officiated and burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Larry Jordan, McKay Phthisic, Herbert Ray Lane, Lucious Roy Chappell, David Chappell, and Lloyd Gene Chappell.

Capeharts Baptist Revival Planned

Revival services will be held at Capeharts Baptist Church Monday and continue through Sunday morning. The services will begin at 7:45 P.M. each evening.

Rev. Douglas R. Holland of Goldsboro will be the guest speaker for the services. Rev. Bervin Ferguson, pastor, extends the public an invitation to attend.

A Prophet's Portion

Is the day of revivalism past? I think not. I believe not. I believe that one need look no further than the churches in our own county to see that revivalism is still a meaningful experience and need in the life of the church. But if one need look further, let him look at the great city-wide crusades conducted by the Billy Graham Association.

In city after city across the globe, Billy Graham has been used of God to bring renewal in the lives of countless thousands of Christians. There is something good gained when people confess their sins before others.

Revivalism is not dead yet because the need of revival has not died. When the need dies then the cure will also die, but not before.

Social Security Administration News

By DONALD S. MORRIS Field Representative

If you're a student 18-22 getting monthly social security checks, it's important to report any changes in your earnings, school enrollment, or marital status.

About 650,000 students 18 and over get monthly social security payments because a parent gets disability or retirement benefits or has died. They can continue to get payments to age 22—slightly beyond for undergraduates—as long as they remain full-time students and unmarried.

Students getting social security payments should notify social security immediately if they marry, leave school, or start attending on a part-time basis. Students must tell us of such changes so we can stop their monthly benefits as required by law.

Social security payments to students can also be affected by total yearly earnings from part-time or temporary jobs.

If you're a student getting social security payments and know your earnings for 1973 will be more than $2,100, you should report that to social security. Otherwise, you might get benefits you'll have to pay back later.

Social security payments are reduced by $1 for every $2 earned over $2,100 in a year. But no matter how much you earn for the year, you get your full social security payment for any month in which you neither earn $175 nor do substantial work in your own business.

Students getting social security checks should also report a transfer from one school to another.

People with questions about social security student payments can get answers by writing, visiting, or calling any social security office. The Elizabeth City Social Security Office is at 401 S. Dyer Street. The phone number is 338-3931.

GOOD NEWS FOR SINNERS

International Sunday School Lesson for September 30, 1973

LESSON TEXT: Romans 1:1 to 2:16

Building with power

Technology is abroad in the land. Everywhere big yellow and green machines pound and churn the earth. Highways unroll, apartment complexes rise and amusement parks expand. Our children watch. They know power when they see it! Some of our children, though, don't know about another power for building. They have not been taught to see it. It is the power of God and it also shakes and moves us. It is necessary for all men—a gigantic source of energy and strength. Take your children to church on Sunday. They will be tomorrow's builders.

Willford FUNERAL HOME EDENTON, N. C.

Dear Friends:

There are so many things that need to be done at time of bereavement—relatives and friends to be notified; statistics for the obituary and death certificate; funeral and burial decisions and arrangements; selection of pallbearers and music. Your funeral director can help you to delegate some responsibilities to competent friends and relatives, who are usually most willing to help.

Respectfully,
H. B. Willford, Jr.
