Different handicrafts, including pine needle craft, woodworking and bread dough flowers, are also displayed. These have been done by several local people and in cooperation with the Agricultural Department and the Albemarle Craftsmen Guild. We invite you to stop in the Library and enjoy this display. We are open Monday and Thursday evenings until 8:00 P.M. and also on Saturdays from 9:30 A.M. until 12:30 P.M.

Holmes DECA Club Attends District Session

On November 8th, the DECA Club of John A. Holmes High School attended the annual District Leadership Conference at Farmville Central High School. The Club competed against twelve area schools in two competition categories.

Miss Barbie Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Williams, Route two, Edenton, won third place in the Job Interview Contest. This contest was set up like an actual job interview and was conducted by a trained personnel manager from Greenville, N. C.

Miss Teresa White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl White of Windsor Woods won first runner up in the Miss DECA contest. The 12 girls competing in this contest were judged on poise, personality traits, and ability to converse, as well as to the attractiveness of the girls.

Sermon Topics Are Given

Rev. Robert E. Gray has selected as his sermon topic "In the Economy of God — The Church" for the 11 o'clock worship service Sunday morning. Scripture will be taken from Matthew 16:13-19. "Good Deeds Are Not Enough" will be his subject using Matthew 19:16-30 as the text at the 7:30 evening worship service.

Topic Is Chosen For Sunday Sermon

"Where Are the Nine?" is the topic for Sunday's morning sermon at Edenton United Methodist Church. Rev. E. L. Earnhardt will use as his text, Luke 17:11-19. At the evening service he will speak on the topic "Everybody Wins" from I Corinthians 15:57.

As far as Americans of colonial times could see, the best cure for eye diseases was the plant called eye-bright.

THANK YOU . . .

To the voters of the Town of Edenton, I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the confidence shown in me by the splendid support given me in the Municipal Election Tuesday, November 6.

I am grateful and will do my best to carry out the duties of Councilman-at-Large to the very best of my ability and with you in mind at all times

JAMES C. (Pete) DAIL

DECEMBER BRIDE-ELECT—Mr. and Mrs. William W. Rascoe announce the engagement of her daughter, Brenda Joyce, to Thomas C. Archie. The bride-elect is a graduate of John A. Holmes High School and is presently employed at George C. Moore Company. Mr. Archie is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and is now employed in Norfolk, Va. A December 8 wedding is planned at Providence Baptist Church.

Gem, Mineral Show Planned

The third Annual Coastal Plain Gem and Mineral Show will be held at Hobgood Academy on Saturday and Sunday. This will be an outstanding event, with displays of rare minerals, gems, fossils, and local and national American Indian artifacts as well as some fascinating exhibits of Northeastern North Carolina history.

Demonstration Given To Club

The Garden of Eden Club met Tuesday morning at St. Paul's Episcopal Parish House. Speaker for the event was Mrs. Malcolm Todd, Jr., master judge of flower arrangements.

The program was "Christmas Arrangements, All Through the House." Mrs. Todd displayed many special exhibits, exciting flower arrangements, and unusual containers made from cans and bottles, dried materials and appropriate accessories for Thanksgiving and Christmas decorations.

To prevent Formica and Micarta surfaces from being rubbed the wrong way, heed this hint. Never use an abrasive or strong scouring powder on these surfaces. Such treatment will ruin the finish. Pour rubbing alcohol on the surface and spread evenly with your hand. Allow this to sit for a minute and then pour bleach. Spread this over all stains. Rinse with clear water.
