

Society News

Continued from Page 3
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Askew, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Askew, Jr., of Onancock, Va. spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Byrum.

Mrs. D. J. Walker of Burlington is spending this week with her daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shepherd.

Brad Bue of Salisbury, N. C. and UNC at Chapel Hill and Kel Elmore of UNC visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conger, Jr., last weekend.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Mrs. Arthelia F. Wilder wish to thank each and everyone for their prayers and cards, doctors and the nurses while in the hospital and the many friends, neighbors for the use of their cars, food, cards, money, telegrams and other things that was a big help to the family.

The Wilder and The Foxwell Family

INSTRUMENTALISTS—Pictured above are special instrumentalists for the Christian folk-rock musical "True Vine," written and directed by John Allums of the Edenton Baptist Church. The production is scheduled to open on December 9 at the Baptist Church.

Gov. Wallace Guest Speaker

RALEIGH — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace has accepted an invitation from Democratic Party leaders in this state to visit North Carolina and speak at a party fund-raising dinner to be held February 16.

Gov. Wallace's acceptance was announced Tuesday by State Democratic Chairman Jams R. Sugg, who had accompanied Hargrove (Skipper) Bowles, the 1972 Democratic nominee for governor, to visit Wallace recently in his office in Montgomery.

Sugg and Bowles invited Wallace to come here under the party's auspices in order to assist Democratic Party rebuilding in the wake of last year's loss of the governorship and one U. S. Senate seat.

Although plans for the Alabama governor's appearance haven't been completed, Sugg said Wallace was asked to be the speaker for a fund-raising affair and that it will be held in Raleigh, at Dorton Arena.

Sugg said he and Bowles found Wallace "in good spirits when we met him at his office. We talked for over an hour as he spoke for his affection for North Carolina, and his desire to help us."

Wallace received the votes of a majority of the participants in the 1972 Democratic presidential preference primary in North Carolina.

Sugg said the Alabama governor expressed his gratitude for the support he has received in this state and "he wants to work through the Party."

"He said he was disappointed," the North Carolina Democratic chairman continued, "that he was unable to get to this state prior to the election last November and campaign for Democrats."

"The governor was enthusiastic in his response to our invitation and made it clear he wished to aid the Party in any way he could."

There had been rumors during the election campaign last year, just prior to the 1972 Vance-Aycock Dinner, that Wallace would visit the dinner, but the plans never materialized.

His visit here next February would make him the third Southern governor to be invited to North Carolina by the Democratic Party for major party-sponsored events, in the aftermath of last year's losses. The party thus set a pattern of going to Southern governors for assistance in evolving a strategy for turning back Republican gains in the region.

PRSA Chairman Elected

Dr. Carl F. Hawver, executive vice president of the National Consumer Finance Association, Washington, D.C., was elected to the national chairmanship of the Public Relations Society of America by the Society's Assembly of Delegates. The election took place at PRSA's 1973 Conference in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Headquartered in New York City, PRSA with a national membership of more than 7,000, is the largest association of its kind in the world. The Society's members are public relations professionals from business and industry, public relations consulting firms, government firms, educational institutions, trade and professional groups, and other non-profit organizations.

Businesses. Associations.

Flexible plans of GROUP LIFE INSURANCE

helping you through life

Thomas J. Jordan
1 Stamford Road
EDENTON, N. C.
Home: 483-2444
Office: 483-2528

TO VISIT IN STATE—Alabama Gov. George Wallace, center, will visit North Carolina next year to promote the Democratic Party. He is shown here in a recent Montgomery meeting with Hargrove (Skipper) Bowles, left, and Democratic Party Chairman James R. Sugg.

Four To Face Drugs Charges

Drug charges were lodged against four people in the Snug Harbor section of Perquimans County Friday night following an investigation and raid by area officers.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Richard Johnson and Harold Dean Bishop of Snug Harbor, and John Gilbert Layton, Jr., of Merry Hill, were charged with the felony of possession of marijuana for the purpose of sale. They are scheduled for trial Wednesday in Perquimans County District Court.

The arrests were made by SBI Agent Bill Godley, Sheriff Julian Broughton and members of his staff and Sheriff Troy Toppin and members of his staff. It was reported that one pound of marijuana was found in the Johnson home about 7 P.M.

Earlier in the day officers searched a car in which the Johnsons were passengers and found four ounces of the weed.

Wish I'd SAID THAT

"An official wants and needs to hear every point of view on an issue. An eight-cent stamp is a small price to pay for freedom."—John Hudler, The Burlington (Colo.) Record.

The Old Timer

"Most people are willing to change not because they see the light but because they feel the heat."

ROSS JEWELERS

Edenton, N. C.

Sterling Silver Snowflake Assures Bright Christmas

Snowflakes at Christmas are assured by Gorham. This sterling silver tree ornament measures 3-1/4 inches from point to point. Price is $10.95. FROM: Gorham Co.

From The Herald Kitcher.

Continued from Page 3
batter into greased loaf pan. Bake 55 to 60 minutes, or until tests done. Cool on rack for 10 minutes. Remove from pan; cool thoroughly. Wrap cooled bread and store at least one day before slicing. Cut in thin slices and serve with cream cheese or butter.

There is good cheer and good eating in store for those who are lucky enough to receive flavorful Apple Oat Flake Bread. The flavors mellow with storing and the bread freezes well.

Apple Oat Flake Bread
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/8 teaspoon allspice
Two-thirds cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 1/2 cups oat flakes (Post Fortified)

1 cup finely chopped peeled cooking apples
1/4 cup chopped walnuts

2 eggs, well beaten
Two-thirds cup milk
2 tablespoons molasses
1/4 cup melted shortening, slightly cooled

Sift flour with baking powder, salt, and spices. Add sugar, cereal, apples, and nuts. Combine eggs, milk, molasses, and shortening; add to flour mixture, stirring just until all flour is moistened. Pour into a well-greased loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 60 to 65 minutes. Cool in pan 10 minutes; then remove from pan and finish cooling on rack. For earlier slicing and mellowing of flavors, store bread overnight wrapped in wax paper, plastic wrap or foil.

The crisp, tangy flavor of apples blends well with the mellow sweetness of bananas in Apple Banana Bread. It stays soft and moist when properly wrapped.

Apple Banana Bread
4 apples, finely chopped
Lemon juice
1/2 cup butter or margarine
3 large, ripe bananas, mashed
2 cups sugar
2 large eggs
3 cups all-purpose flour
1 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon brandy flavoring

Core and peel apples and chop fine. Sprinkle with a little lemon juice to prevent discoloration. Add mashed bananas to apples; mix well. Cream butter to consistency of mayonnaise; add sugar while continuing to cream. Add eggs, beating well after each addition. Stir in apples and bananas. Mix and sift flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. Stir in. Add flavoring; mix well. Spoon into two greased and floured eight-inch loaf pans. Bake at 325 degrees for one hour or until bread tests done. Remove from pans. Cool on cake rack. Makes two loaves.

Looking for the perfect gift for everyone on your list? Buy U.S. Savings Bonds—the perfect, personalized gift that all will enjoy for years to come.

WE HOPE IT'S A COMFORT FOR YOU TO KNOW...

WE'RE HERE WHEN NEEDED!

EAST COAST SALES, INC. IS NOW SERVING CHOWAN And SURROUNDING COUNTIES

East Coast Sales of Murfreesboro and Ahoskie has expanded its operations to include Gates County and surrounding area. They bring with them everything that has made them the leading mobile home dealership in the Roanoke Chowan area.

We look forward to serving many old friends in Gates County and extend a welcome to everyone to visit us at our new location on highway no. 158 between Gatesville and Sunbury (Eason's Crossroads).

EAST COAST SALES, INC.

Get this new 1974

solid-state

CHROMACOLOR II

23" swivel base consolette

at the price of a table model

The MANDALAY E451W
Sturdy metal cabinet in grained Kashmir Walnut color. Advanced Chromacolor Picture Tube. Titan 300V Solid-State Chassis. Power Sentry Voltage Regulator. Chromatic One-button Tuning. AFC. Synchronistic 70-Position UHF Channel Selector.

100% solid-state chassis

Jackson's Radio & TV Service

105 West Eden Street, Edenton, N. C. Telephone 483-4444