

Bandon Notebook By Eleanor F. Jackson

The Bandon folks did not deck the halls with boughs of holly, but in memory of loved ones, brought:

Poinsettias, all living and bright which did seem so exceedingly right
For they met one and all
To suggest they recall
What is held in their memories true
For while never forgotten, they grew
Until now they seem near
And in fact, more dear
With a precious love that will not wane
In the calmness of memory's land.

Mrs. W. N. (Louise) Waters introduced the teacher for the adult class. "Ask a busy person when you want something done" so she called upon a dear friend, Mrs. Geneva Stewart, of Portsmouth. She has traveled the Holy Land more than once; is a past president of the Mary B. Crowden Bible class; a member of the Broad Street United Methodist Church, of Portsmouth and is active in U. M. Missionary Society. A part president of the Federation of garden clubs and an active member of the Business and Professional Women's Club. To say that her talk was all too short is saying that it was most interesting, for she told her audience "Something About John", who he was and how his book dealt with the history of Jesus.

Sunday's church hour will be conducted by none other than Bandon's first scheduled minister, Rev. Glenn E. Bunch, Jr. He had performed marriages, baptisms and held communion for the chapel here, and now has a full time pastorate at the Dolphin Baptist Church in Virginia. He's a graduate of Chowan High School, Atlantic Christian College and last May was awarded the Masters in Divinity degree. January 6 church time will find Dr. William J. B. Livingston back in the pulpit at 11 A.M. with his sermon and Communion on the agenda.

Fellowship Hall. It carried the theme and feeling of Christmas with background recordings, supervised by husband, Willie N. Waters. The decor and tree added to the atmosphere as everyone demonstrated the way to use a toy gift which was brought and wrapped by someone else. Nobody had any idea what they would have to do. Some of the antics were hilarious. The same toys will be carried, along with some from the tree, to Chowan's children's ward by Mrs. Grace Schie, chairman of the Bandon Chapel Women's Guild, sponsor of the suppers. Almost forgot to mention one of the nicest sights to behold, that of two husky men, busily washing and drying the dishes. And voluntarily, too!

Sunday School began with a teenage lady, Miss Amanda Bunch, playing the piano prelude and a special solo. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bunch, Jr., of Rocky Hock. Before Bandon Chapel evolved, and Sunday School was assembled in Arrowhead Beach's clubhouse, young Amanda played the small organ carried there for the special occasion.

Accompanying Mrs. Stewart was Mrs. Louise Torbert, of Portsmouth, long time friend of Mmes. Bunting, Stewart and Waters.

On that same day, at 9:45 A.M. Mrs. W. N. (Louise) Waters will teach the adult Sunday School class.

A Prophet's Portion

A look at the past — a hope for the future! 1973 the year of Watergate, waning energy supplies, war in the East and continued war in the Far East, withering confidence in politics and politicians, and the wilting dollar. Not much for the world's view point to give one much confidence.

But, as a Christian, my life is not determined by the world's perspective, but through the heavenly vision projected by God's Holy Spirit. This keeps me from being forced into the world's mold of pessimism while transforming my life with the glow of hope.

Jesus Christ is called the "hope of glory". This makes Him my Hope for the future. 1974 will offer more of the same as 1973 for the "World Man," for the Christian there is Hope in Jesus Christ, God's Son. Would you enjoy 1974 or endure 1974? Hope will make the difference.

Funeral services were held in Colonial Funeral Home Chapel at 2 P.M. Sunday with Rev. Dick Brewer officiating. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: George Jackson, Jr., John Jackson,

Interviews Set For Job Corps

The Job Corps Counselor will pay two visits to Chowan County during January, 1974, to interview possible individuals interested in the federal program.

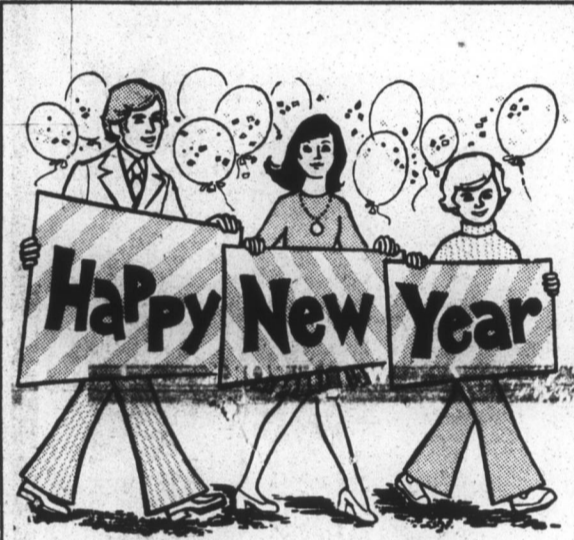

Gary D. Bassar, supervisor, has announced that Hazel Tayloe, Job Corps counselor, will be at the Economic Resource Center on North Oakum Street during the morning hours of January 2 and January 30.

And interested agencies and individuals are encouraged to visit the center at these times.

Dave Lapham, superintendent, gave the morning prayer. Ushers were Clarence Barnes, "Trus" Bunting (who gave the offertory prayer), Henry Skinner and Willie Waters.

Prayers for the world in general are needed, but so are specific ones for Jane Barnes, Berlhone and Watson Blanchard, Irene Bunch, Margaret Bunting, Louise Byrum, Emma Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rich and Earl Rowley.

The Stricklands, Hilda, "Jack" and "Woody" are now in the worst snow in years, but arrived safely at their destination, Detroit, Michigan... so let's pray for their safe return.

Here comes another New Year... and we're right on the dot with loads of good wishes to you and yours.

Williford FUNERAL HOME
EDENTON, N. C.

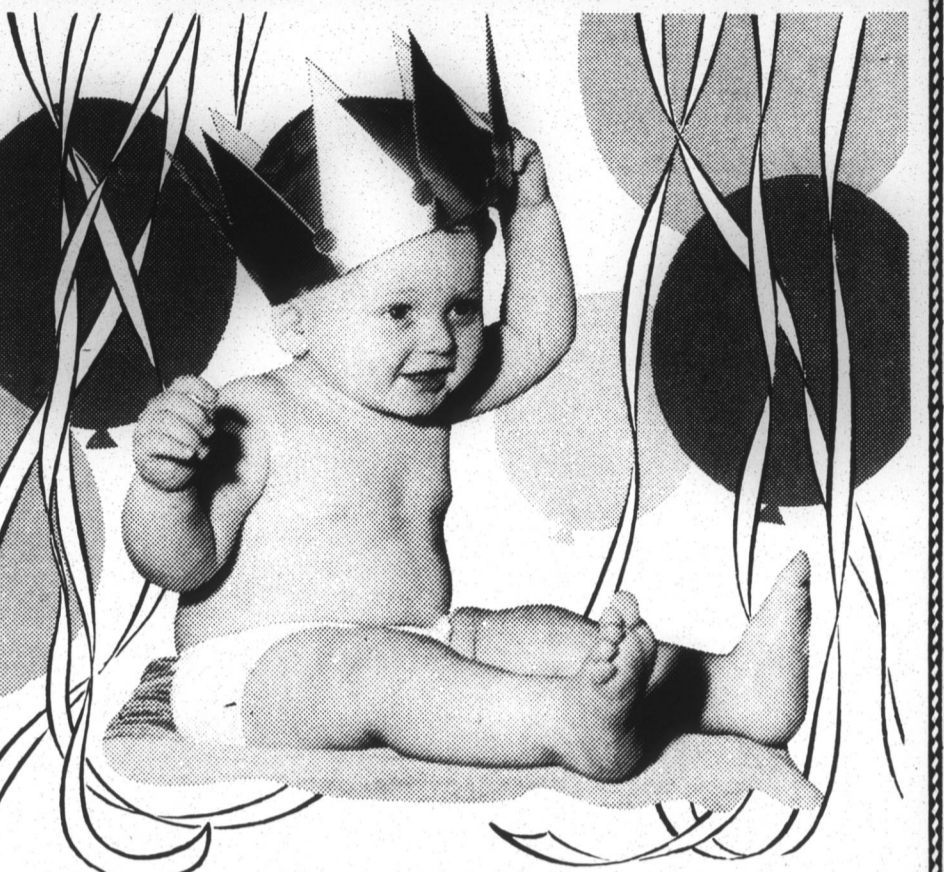

Dear Friends:

Some people, wishing to have a certain type of service conducted by the funeral director of their choosing, arrange their own funerals in advance of need. This can save the survivors considerable time and worry when death occurs. It is most sensible for elderly persons having no close relatives or those desiring an unusual type of funeral service.

Sunday School Lesson

WATER THAT SATISFIES
International Sunday School Lesson for December 30, 1973.
LESSON TEXT: John 4:1-12.

When he stops being cute

Sunday John 1:1-14
Monday Matthew 1:18-25
Tuesday Luke 2:1-7
Wednesday Luke 2:8-20
Thursday Matthew 2:1-12
Friday Matthew 2:13-23
Saturday Hosea 14:1-9

This is his very first New Year. He's celebrating it in his own talented fashion, just being cute. Last year thousands of boys and girls were arrested. They had all been cute—once!

But did they have the priceless example of active Christian parents? Were they given moral and spiritual training in the Church? Did they grow up in a Christian atmosphere?

This young fellow can't be absolutely sure that the New Year is worth celebrating. His future is in the hands of his parents. But he's smiling because of his confidence in them.

During this New Year their faith in God, and the sincerity of their relationship with the Church will begin to determine just what their son is going to be when he stops being cute.
