CARD OF THANKS
I would like to express my thanks and appreciation to all for the visits, cards, flowers and your prayers during my illness and lengthy stay in Chowan Hospital and Chapel Hill. Especially would I like to thank Rocky Hock and Edenton Baptist Churches for cards from Sunday School classes and W. M. S. Circles.

Chowan Hospital is one for all of us to be proud of. Everyone was kind and helpful to me in every way possible. My thanks to each one.

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and appreciation to my relatives, neighbors and friends for all the kindness shown me during my illness, sincere thanks to Dr. Wright and the nurses at Chowan Hospital. To every church Sunday school class and Missionary society that remembered me with a kind thought or act I am most grateful.

Sincerely,
Essie H. Hoggard

Miss Burris, Mr. Smith Exchange Vows

Miss Gay Elaine Burris and Jeffrey Lynn Smith of Edenton spoke their vows Saturday in Macedonia Baptist Church with Rev. Charles Ledford officiating in the afternoon ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Burris. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Smith.

The bride was attired in a gown fashioned with a Juliet bodice of chantilly lace and a skirt of organza which formed a chapel train attached to the empire waist. The neck, Juliet sleeves, skirt and train were edged with fluted lace. The bride's chapel length train veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of imported chantilly lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of carnations and white sweetheart roses framed with baby's breath and greenery.

Mrs. Ben Chewing of Wadesboro, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Cheri Jordan, also of Wadesboro, was maid of honor.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Tammy Burris and Jan Burris, sisters of the bride, and Miss Donna Harrell, cousin of the groom.

Youngest sister of the bride, Miss Lisa Burris, was the flower girl. Marty Conner of Wadesboro, young cousin of the bride served as ringbearer.

Mr. Carroll Smith served as best man for his son. Ushers were Glenn Smith, brother of the groom; David Jethro of Edenton; Elmer Overton, Jr., cousin of the groom; John Thompson, uncle of the bride, and Mike Connor, cousin of the bride, both of Wadesboro.

Mr. Elmer Overton, Sr., accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Robert Cherry, presented the wedding music. Mrs. Leonard Mitzke served as the director of the wedding. Miss Virginia Copeland of Elizabeth City kept the register in the church vestibule.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burris wore a floor length kelly green polyester crepe dress fashioned with an A-line skirt extending from the empire waist. The mandarin neckline, sleeves and front panels were of Venice lace. She wore a matching petal headpiece and other accessories.

Mother of the groom, Mrs. Smith, wore a floor length dress with a turquoise textured polyester bodice with a high neck and bands with a softly gathered skirt of contrasting polyester crepe. She wore a flowered headpiece and matching accessories. The groom's grandmother wore a dressmaker suit of pink and gray paisley double knit with matching accessories.

For a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. the bride chose a heather blue knit suit with a sweater vesket top and an A-line skirt. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses entwined with pale blue ribbons.

After their wedding trip the bride and groom will return to Edenton where they will make their home.

Cake Cutting
The wedding rehearsal on Friday night preceded a cake cutting at the fellowship hall at Macedonia Baptist Church given in honor of the wedding couple by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Smith. For the cake cutting the bride-to-be wore a coral dress with an empire waistline and a matching textured Isenhour jacket. Her corsage of white carnations was framed by coral net and ribbon.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Kathleen Conner, Marty Conner, Mike Conner, Mr. & Mrs. Ben Chewing, Mr. John Thompson, Mr. Buddy Thompson, Miss Cheri Jordan all from Wadesboro, N. C. Mr. & Mrs. James Hough & family from Lilesville, N. C. Mrs. Jack Tarlton & Miss Paula Tarlton from Rockville, Ga.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED — Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herman Spruill of Edenton announce the engagement of their daughter, Annie Jane, to Ronald Gray Warlick. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith Warlick, Jr., of Windsor. The wedding is planned for mid-July.

Providence Baptist Church News

The Church School of Providence Baptist Church will open at 9:30 A.M., with Charlie L. Downing, Sr., as director. The worship service will begin at 11 A.M. The Sermon will be given by the pastor, Dr. William C. Butts. The sermon-subject is "The Unmerciful Servant".

The Pastor's Aide, chaired by Mrs. Nellie C. Knight, presented to the Church a three-inch platform for the pulpit and Mrs. Nellie C. Knight gave the church a four-foot red carpet to cover the pulpit platform in memory of the late Mrs. Willie K. Knight, former church-organist and director of the Senior Choir.

The Chairman of the Trustee Board, Albert C. Hudson, accepted the two gifts in behalf of the pastor and church.

A dedication service will be held during the Sunday worship services for the gifts.

Spring revival services will begin April 21, with Rev. G. Daniel Jones, pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Portsmouth, Va., as guest evangelist.

NARFE MEETING
The National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) will meet in the REA building in Hertford on Friday. The meeting is scheduled for 2:30 o'clock that afternoon. All federal retired persons are urged to attend.

Inflation rates were considerably higher at other periods in American history; a common laborer in Boston who earned three shillings a day in early 1777 was paid 60 shillings in mid-1779, according to an article in the U. S. Department of Labor's "Monthly Labor Review."
