

TURKEY PROJECT—Jonathan McClure is seen reaching for a turkey egg which will be opened so that the students can see the developing embryo.

Special Project For White Oak

Real excitement has been in the offering for all students at White Oak School!
 On March 27 Lester Copeland donated 80 turkey eggs to the school for their turkey incubator.
 Children have been able to actually see the daily development of the embryo!
 Every day there is real excitement among the students—wondering what new development they will see that day.
 Nancy Boswell from Chowan High School really found herself in luck when she was able to use this in correlation with her biology project.
 She has found it just as exciting and rewarding as the students and faculty of White Oak.
 Many thanks, Mr. Copeland, for making this study available to us.
 By the way—D-Day was April 24th!

Ever wonder how many races a horse could win during one career? Kingston, one of the fleetest thoroughbreds ever to circle the oval, won the staggering total of 89 races in 138 starts!

PROGRESS NOTED—White Oak students can't wait until Nancy Boswell can show them how much the embryo of the turkey has developed.

English girls used to think that by putting a sprig of thyme in one shoe and a sprig of rosemary in the other, they would see their future husbands on St. Agnes' Eve.

AND EVEN MORE PROGRESS—Finally! Nancy shows the students the changes that have taken place since the last time they saw it.
