Edenton Students Model Night Set Complete Studies For June 6

RALEIGH—Sunday was a rewarding day for almost 300 seniors at Meredith College when they received diplomas from the four-year women's college.

Among the graduates were two from Edenton. Barbara Jane George received a B.A. degree in both mathematics and economics. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. George, Virginia Road. Deborah Jo Wilkins also received a B.A. degree in business and economics. She is the daughter of Mrs. Frances P. Wilkins, Cypress Road.

A model night is scheduled for June 6 from 7:30 - 10:30 P.M. at the St. Paul's Episcopal Parish House. Displays of model cars, trucks, planes, ships, tanks, and trains will be shown free to the public.

A film on model trains will also be shown at 8:30 and again at 9:30. Dioramas and operating models will also be displayed. Modelers interested in displaying their models should contact: Grif Bond, Phone 482-3736 after 6 P.M. The interested public is invited to view the many excellent models and it's free!
