Wayside Pulpit

BY D. E. EARNHARDT

The pastor was called by one of his members who was in despair; his boy had been bitten by a rattle-snake and it looked like a slim chance of recovery. But the pastor saw a more serious ailment; those people have forgotten God and the Church.

So when he called them to prayer the latter ailment was biggest in mind and he prayed as follows: "thou magnificent and almighty and sovereign God, who didst make the mountains and the trees and the skies and the stars and rattlesnakes, hear our prayer concerning these people who have talked against your church and have spurned, all the invitations to return. Send them some more rattle-snakes and let two of them bite the old man and let one of them bite his gossling wife and let one coil around the neck of their foolish daughter. And when these folks come to the church altar and pray for forgiveness, hear their prayer and grant them pardon but let them know that the mountain is still full of snakes."

A FRIEND

A friend of mine
Just passed away
Here for a little while
And a day.

Why must you hurry
Why can't you stay
It breaks my heart
For you to go away.

You loved your neighbor
The big and small
You tried to help
Whenever the call.

Sometimes we wonder
And don't understand
God will not fail
He holds our hand.

Some days our cross
Is heavy to bare
We grow so weary
We know he is there.

I am a friend
That will miss "you"
We shared our joys
And a "Tear or Two"

We shared our flowers
From time to time
We added a bit of love
"No, Money, No Dime".

We gave flowers
While we were here
"Sweet Peace, and Harmony"
While we were near.

Why did you leave?
Why did you go?
"God" was ready
"His Will" you know.

The road was rocky.
The path was rocky.
Sit down by "Jesus"
Rest all day long.

SWAIN CEREMONY — Taking part in Constitution Week activities at Swain Elementary School were Principal Ralph Cole, Sherrod Banks, president of Student Council, and Allen Downum and Ed Small, student representatives to the council.

Swain Students Present Program

At an impressive ceremony last Friday, the Swain Student Council presented a program to commemorate American Constitution Week. The highlight of the ceremony was the presentation of a new American flag for the school to Ralph Cole, principal, by Sherrod Banks, president of the Student Council.

The flag was purchased with money raised by the Student Council through various projects last year. Cole accepted the new flag with the hope that "we would all uphold the Constitution, and would honor the flag, which represents the highest ideals of individual ability, justice, and equal opportunity for all."

The true spirit of patriotism rules as Banks led the assembly in the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Shelia Cherry, vice-president, spoke on features of the constitution which have permitted us to

Mayor Supports Special Event

Saturday has been proclaimed as Hunting and Fishing Day in Edenton by Mayor Roy L. Harrell. He said it has been so designated because of the outstanding contributions that America's hunters and fishermen have made to conservation, recreation and the economy.

The proclamation was prompted by Alemarie

Wildlife Club, which is meeting at 7 P.M. October 3 at Edenton Restaurant for a dutch dinner.

Mayor Harrell noted that hunters and fishermen are unique in all America because they asked that their fishing and hunting equipment be taxed and that the money be used for land acquisition, research and habitat management for fish and wildlife for the enjoyment of all Americans.

"I urge all of our citizens to join with sportsmen-conservationists in a rededication to the wise use of our natural resources and their proper management for the benefit of future generations."
