Juvenile Fiction
"Doctor's Tools" by Marguerite Lerner.

Library Doings
Treasure Trails in the U.S.A. published by the National Extension Homemakers Council is a fantastic new book in the Shepard-Pruden Library. The idea for this book was developed by Epsy Johnson in 1972 while she was serving as National Cultural Arts chairman. The book contains records of all the historical interest areas in each state that are least known about compiled by 600,000 homemakers from over the United States. Truly one book written with pride in America's heritage.

Methodist Topic Picked

"The Burden Bearer" from Isaiah 53:4-9, has been chosen by Rev. E. L. Earnhardt for his sermon topic Sunday morning at Edenton United Methodist Church. At the 7:30 P.M. service his topic will be "Paul's Madness" from Acts 26:26.

VIEW EXHIBIT—Proud parents view the "Superintendent's Choice" art exhibit at the School Administrative Office in the Chowan County Office Building. The display, which changes monthly, provides students in each school an opportunity to present various art forms which they have been taught during the year. Viewing the display featuring student art from the primary (K-3) department of D. F. Walker School are, left to right, Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Frank Small, Mrs. Jimmy Keeter and April Keeter.

DISTRICT WINNER—Samuel Bobbit Dixon, student at Chowan Academy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dixon, has recently been named first place winner in District 8 for an essay written and submitted to a contest sponsored by Edenton Tea Party Chapter, DAR. Presenting the award is Mrs. Marguerite Burch, American History Month chairman.

Sambo Dixon Contest Winner

Samuel Bobbit Dixon, a Chowan Academy student, has been named first place winner in District 8 for his essay on Joseph Hewes. The essay contest was sponsored by the Edenton Tea Party Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Marguerite Burch, History Month chairman, presented him with a bronze medal for excellence in history.

Benita Ward and Karen Roberts of Chowan High School were second place winners and Scott Winslow of Chowan Academy was third place winner.

District 8 includes DAR chapters in Elizabeth City, Edenton, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Wilson, Scotland Neck, Washington, Halifax, Snow Hill and Farmville.

Letter To The Editor

Several weeks ago the WCDJ for all of their free publicity and the great job they did for us. There are not words to express how grateful we are to each of you. I just hope you know in your hearts the good that will come from your caring and giving.

Please keep checking this paper for further news on our next sale. God bless and keep you all.
