Students Building Greenhouse

Mashed thumbs will soon be turning into green thumbs for students currently enrolled in Ornamental Horticulture, a vocational course being taught at John A. Holmes High School.

The horticulture class, instructed by Eugene Rascoe, is in the process of constructing a 20 feet x 40 feet greenhouse, which will be completed and become their classroom for ornamental horticulture by the end of March. The course is designed to aid students in acquiring and understanding the basic skills and competencies of ornamental horticulture.

Instruction in this area includes basic concepts of landscape gardening and design, nursery practices, and ornamental plant science. Practical experience is needed to implement the skills needed, and the construction of a new greenhouse has provided the experience as well as a place to experiment.

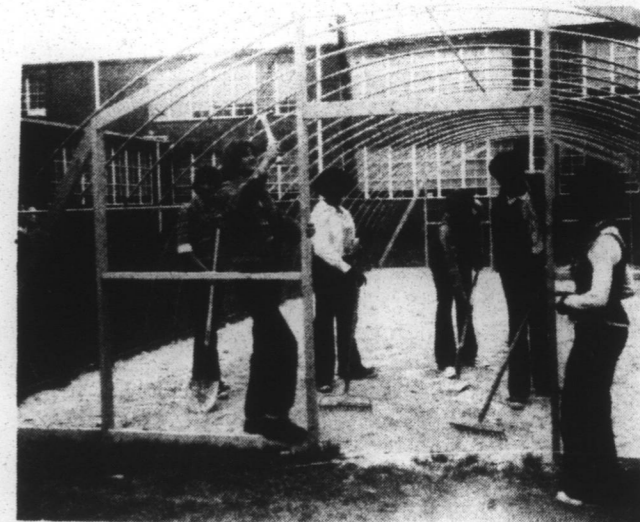

Local nurseries have indicated that they would supply the students with a wide variety of plants and cuttings to use in getting their greenhouse started," according to Rascoe. "This will be most beneficial since plants and their identification will be the next phase of the course."

Rascoe also noted that "we hope to have a propagating bed or area for rooting various kinds of cuttings, and will eventually develop a land lab within the area of the greenhouse to place cuttings to develop further growth."

Next year, as more funds become available, the vocational department plans to construct a head house for potting and storage.

Spaghetti Supper
Mrs. Sylvia Johnson will serve a spaghetti supper in the Arrowhead Beach Club House on March 27th from 6 P.M. to 7:30. The cost will be $2.50 per plate which includes spaghetti, salad and bread. If possible, make reservations by calling 221-4739 or 221-4602. Mrs. Johnson operates the concession stand at Arrowhead Beach. Come on out and enjoy the evening.
