WASHINGTON—American consumers find something wrong with more than one of every four things they buy, but most of the time they don't complain to the seller, according to Ralph's Nader's study group.

ANDERSON CITED—Gary Anderson, Chowan County Blood Program chairman, is shown above as he receives a Certificate of Appreciation from Joan W. Langevin, Blood Program field representative for the American Red Cross. He was cited for his outstanding service during this fiscal year in which Chowan County met its goal of 500 units.

Gary Anderson Presented Certificate Of Appreciation

Gary Anderson, chairman of the Chowan County Blood Program, was presented a Certificate of Appreciation from the Tidewater Chapter of the American National Red Cross Tuesday afternoon.

In presenting the award, Joan W. Langevin, Blood Program field representative, cited the outstanding job performed by Anderson during the fiscal year 1975-76 in meeting the county quota. This was the first time in four years, Mrs. Langevin remarked, that Chowan County has reached this goal.

As program chairman, Anderson was responsible for organizing and managing the volunteer program, including finding an adequate location, securing a staff, and encouraging citizens to donate.

Anderson, an employee of Atlantic Credit Corp., is succeeded as program chairman by Allan Asbell of Peoples Bank.

With the beginning of a new fiscal year, Mrs. Langevin stressed that it is more important than ever for Chowan County to reach its 1976-77 goal of 500 units.

"The chances of being able to make up a deficit from another chapter or blood center is steadily declining because more blood is being used every year," she said.

An inadequate number of donors could result in a shortage of blood to the hospital, Mrs. Langevin commented, and she emphasized the importance of availability saying, "It takes a minimum of six hours to draw and test a unit of blood, but it can take less than a minute for you to bleed to death. The only way to insure an adequate supply of blood is to donate."

While ultimately the success of the blood program depends on the donor, she said that the role of the volunteer staff should not be underplayed.

"Because of the many volunteers that have so generously donated their time to the blood program, the cost of blood is held to a minimum. If not for the volunteer, the cost could be twice as much."

For each visit of the Bloodmobile to Chowan County, a staff of approximately 25 people is needed: five registered nurses or licensed practical nurses and about 20 non-professional volunteers. In addition, there is a physician on call.

The next visit of the Bloodmobile, here, will be August 9 from 12 noon until 6 P.M. in the Fellowship Hall of Edenton Baptist Church. A total of 100 units is needed.

Turnpike Travel—Despite what I learned in math class, it is not always true that a straight line is the shortest distance between two points. For instance, when I saw the route suggested by the Exxon Travel Club for my trip from Plymouth to Chicago, Ill. by way of Richmond, Washington, D. C., Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Toledo, it looked like the longest way possible since it goes almost due north and then due west instead of diagonally northwest. But they knew their business - I was on turnpikes all the way and the trip was a breeze. For $10.75 in tolls I traveled on superhighways almost as good and almost as scenic as our lovely, free I-40 in North Carolina.

After a lifetime of automobile travel through most of these United States, I have developed a system for enjoyable, hassle-free driving. Too much planning spoils the freedom to follow sudden whim but proper preparation is crucial. A comfortable, well-maintained car is important for safety and peace of mind but almost as necessary is packing it properly. Stopping for meals three times a day can be expensive and disappointing besides, so I take all my favorite foods with me. Two small coolers filled with fruit, cheese, yogurt, iced tea, fruit juice, milk, and carrots fresh from Cyndy's garden, plus peanut butter, crackers, salted nuts, instant breakfast, raisins, prunes, a thermos of coffee and even - present licorice sticks were all I needed to nibble my way to Chicago without once patronizing a "greasy spoon".

My formula for arriving at my destination in good condition includes allowing plenty of time for R&R. Every couple of hours, I stopped at a rest area to continue my research on quality (Virginia rated fair, Pennsylvania's service areas are franchised to Howard Johnson so they were very commercial but clean, Ohio's were littered and overpriced but the girl in the Information Center was cordial, and Indiana had the nicest facilities on the turnpike route). Taking sun-baths while reading the daily paper, walking around, jumping rope, and my favorite form of exercise (golf) all provided breaks from driving. Stereo music on the radio when I could locate a station was supplemented by cassette tapes which I brought with me. Thus I was never bored.

SCREECHES

Changing Images—Sometimes I get the feeling that librarians belong to the most misunderstood profession. The public don't quite know what it is that we do. At the meetings of the Boards of Trustees for Washington County Library and for the Pettigrew Regional Library that were held on Monday, just before I left for my journey to attend the national library convention, there were new members who were plainly puzzled about the inner workings of the library business.

But I met a man on the golf course near Lake Huron in Ohio who was even more worried about his image than I am. We had played a full nine holes before he could bring himself to admit that he and his wife were attending a convention of judges. His wife owns an art gallery and he was much more eager to talk about that - a more "acceptable" occupation than being a judge.

The man, or woman, who learns to laugh, at himself or herself, even privately, is making progress.

Arts And Crafts Fair Scheduled

NAGS HEAD—The seventh annual Arts and Crafts Fair will be held here July 28-30. It will be held at the Parish House of St. Andrew's By-The-Sea and is sponsored by the churchwomen.

New exhibitors are solicited as well as those who have participated in previous events.

"Each year the fair has grown, with more exhibitors and greater sales," a spokesman noted. "It is an opportunity for both professionals and non-professional artists and craftsmen to display their talents to the summer visitors."

All artists, craftsmen and photographers are eligible to exhibit. Students from the 12th Grade are also eligible to enter.

The fair will be open from 1 P.M. to 9 P.M., next Wednesday and Thursday and 1 P.M. to 6 P.M. on Friday.

There is no advance registration, and no entry fee. All exhibits will be brought to the Parish House Tuesday between the hours of 10 A.M. and 3 P.M. and picked up Saturday between the hours of 10 A.M. and 1 P.M.

Additional information may be obtained from Mrs. Mercy McCurdy, 139 Yaupon Trail, Kitty Hawk, telephone, 261-2755; or Mrs. Bea Mulford, 261-2242.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH A FARMER FOR A GOVERNOR? NOTHING!

GEORGE WOOD is INDEPENDENT—He's his own man. He's not tied to any political group. He doesn't owe anybody anything.

GEORGE WOOD is a HARD WORKER—Like any farmer, he's used to working from dawn to dusk. He knows what it's like to be hot and tired. He doesn't quit until the job is done.

GEORGE WOOD is a BUSINESSMAN—Experience in organizing and running a large business is essential in knowing how to handle state government. George Wood has that experience.

GEORGE WOOD is a man of INTEGRITY—Many politicians tell you what they think you want to hear. George Wood is plain spoken and outspoken. He tells you what he believes. He follows through on what he tells you.

GEORGE WOOD is INNOVATIVE—On his farm he's been the originator of many ideas which have made that operation successful. He'll do the same for the state. He's looking for the best way, not the easiest way.

GEORGE WOOD is a CHANGE—He's not a professional politician. He's not a lawyer. He's a working man who knows what working men and women need and want.

KEEP TAKING THE MEDICINE!

Too often, people will stop taking a medicine because they think that an illness has disappeared. This can be harmful, especially in cases of children who are given anti-biotics to combat an infection. If your physician directs you to give a child a medicine four times a day for ten days, keep giving that prescription until it is all used up.

In studies where medicine was stopped before it was finished, over 20 per cent of the children showed lingering traces of infection, requiring another round of medication.
