

Mr. Smith Claims Bride

Miss Nancy Darlene Evans of Edenton, and Mr. Jeffrey Lawrence Smith of Birmingham, Ala., were united in marriage on Saturday, at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Rocky Hock Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll A. Evans, Sr., and the late Mrs. Betty C. Evans. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Smith of Windsor.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Larry McClure in a candlelight setting of glads, mums, pom poms and palms.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of imported silk organza with venise and clung lace trimming, featuring an empire bodice with inserts of lace panels and yoke edged in a ruffle of clung lace. The gown had a high neckline with a tiny collar edged in venise lace buds. The long sleeves ended in a wide cuff of tiny tucks and lace. A full detachable train which had a wide ruffle with tiny tucks and lace, extended into a full chapel length. The mantella was of silk illusion trimmed in scalloped chantilly lace and appliques of matching lace. The bride carried a nosegay of white roses and baby's breath.

The bride's brother Mr. Carroll A. Evans, Jr., soloist, presented music along with Mr. Jackie Boyce, organist.

Miss Carol Ann Byrum of Elizabeth City was maid of honor. Miss Joy Bass of Edenton, Miss Patricia Harris of Nashville, and Miss Debra Rhodes of Wilmington, were the bridesmaids.

Mr. Smith served as his son's best man. Mr. Carroll Evans, Jr., of Edenton and Mr. Stephen Logan and Mr. Michael Nichols of Birmingham were groomsmen.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length formal green gown. Her corsage was an eggshell orchid. The groom's mother chose to wear a floor length formal light blue gown and also wore an eggshell orchid corsage.

Mistresses of ceremony was Mrs. Mary Long of Edenton.

Miss Karen Evans, cousin of the bride also from Edenton, registered the guests.

Cousins of the bride, Miss Melonie Evans, of Raleigh, and Master Greg White of Elizabeth City, distributed rice bags to the guest following the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Birmingham. The groom is employed as a project engineer at Ball-Co Contractors. The bride will be continuing her nursing education at Jefferson State Junior College.

COURTESIES
A miscellaneous shower was given June 22 in Charlotte by Miss Candy Nussman and Miss Edwina Carter.

The bride was honored at a lingerie shower at the home of Miss Carol Ann Byrum on August 18.
