 also laid in white satin, held a multi-tiered wedding cake topped with a nosegay of sonya roses and snowdrift pompons. Matching garlands of white and shrimp flowers encircled the base. The cake was complimented by a silver candlebrum holding a corresponding floral design and white candles.
 Following tradition, the bridal pair cut the first slice of cake, after which Mrs. W. Edison Hole of Henderson and Mrs. Charles Watkins of Raleigh, continuing the serving. Mrs. Peggy Crocker of Henderson and Mrs. I. B. Watkins Jr. of Chapel Hill presided over the punch bowl.
 Assisting in serving and receiving throughout were Miss Mary Hemingway, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Tharrington, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Holmes and Miss Cheryl Fisher, all of Henderson.
 On their departure, guests spoke goodbyes to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Faulkner and Dr. and Mrs. James M. Tolson of Henderson.
 After a wedding trip to Vermont, Mr. and Mrs. Leary will be at home in Raleigh.

Varied Docket Aired In Chowan County District Court On Tuesday

Dan Junior Benbery, Route 3, Edenton was given a 12-month sentence in Chowan County District Court Tuesday of last week after being convicted of driving while his license was revoked.
 Judge Grafton Beaman said testimony in the case bordered on perjury.
 Patrolman S. F. Small of Edenton Police Department had testified he saw the defendant and Kenneth Bond switch places in the front seat of a car on Badham Road.
 Benbery testified he had not driven the car that night and Bond followed him to the stand to say he was driving the car and at no time switched places with Benbery.
 The defendant gave notice of appeal.
 The larceny of less than $50 in lumber proved costly to Joseph Vance Parrish. Parrish entered a plea of guilty to larceny and Sheriff Troy Toppin told the judge the value was placed at $40.80. The defendant was sentenced to six months, suspended upon payment of $200 fine and costs and make payment of the lumber.
 In other cases called by Asst. Dist. Atty. Chris Bean

the following action was taken:
 Weldon Paul Hewett, improper muffler, $15 fine and costs.
 Bobby Lee Byrum, speeding, $15 fine and costs.
 Benjamin William Marsh, improper passing, not guilty.
 Carlton Lee Wynn, reckless driving and speed competition, six months, suspended upon payment of $250 fine and costs.
 Paul Gregory, Jr.,

reckless driving and speed competition, dismissed.
 George Edward Wood, Sr., reckless driving, $75 fine and costs.
 Selby Elijah Corbett, speeding, $10 fine and costs.
 Ronnie Lee White, assault on an officer, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs; resisting arrest, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs; obstructing an officer, dismissed.
 Henry Lee Perry, obstructing an officer, 60 days, suspended upon payment of $100 fine and costs.

 Probable cause was found in the matter of William Holloman, accessory after the fact of breaking and entering and larceny; and Ernest Holley, assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and breaking and entering and larceny.
 Andrew Bonner, drunk driving and speeding, 60 days, suspended upon payment of $125 fine and costs. Notice of appeal was entered.

 Charlie Ford, obstructing an officer, 30 days, suspended upon payment of $30 fine and costs.
 Lewis Bateman, assault, 12 months, suspended upon payment of $350 fine and costs; using profane and indecent language on telephone, dismissed.
 Willie Williams, drunk driving, 90 days, suspended upon payment of $175 fine and costs.

W. G. Boyce Clubs Recognized Taken In Death

William Gathon Boyce, 78, 1101 North Oakum Street, died Monday in Chowan Hospital following an extended illness. He was a retired farmer.
 Mr. Boyce was born December 25, 1897, in Chowan County. He was a veteran of World War I.
 Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Lela McClenney Boyce; a son, Everette M. Boyce of Winterthur, Del.; a daughter, Mrs. Mildred L. Sanford of Williamsburg, Va.; a brother, Pete Boyce of Winfall; and five grandchildren.

Chowan, Ryland and Cape Colony Ruritan clubs were all recognized at the annual Albemarle District Ruritan Convention held Saturday night in Elizabeth City.
 The Chowan club was recognized for having a net increase of five new members. This was the only club of the 20 in the district to receive the plaque for membership extension. Eight new members were added this year. They were Emmett Winslow, Drew Welch, Carlton Dail, Carlton Nixon, Robby Boyce, Tom Palmer, Ray Smith and David Bateman.

Production Slated At Academy

Chowan Academy will present "Amahl and the Night Visitors" on Monday at 7:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.
 The production tells the story of a widow (Cyndi Phillips) and her crippled son (Eric Rose) who are rewarded for the kindness extended to the Christ child.
 Donations of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children will be accepted at the door.

He was a member of First Christian Church.
 Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Williford-Barham Funeral Chapel with Rev. E. C. Alexander and Rev. Charles Ledford officiating. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.
 Pallbearers were: Thomas Lane, Pruden Forehand, Joe Lee, Wayne Evans, Vernon Lane and Marvin Parrish.

Ryland Club was recognized as the top club for Human Development. Ryland Club had a benefit supper for Richard Copeland. He had been diagnosed to have a serious illness. The supper produced a net profit of over $3,200.
 Cape Colony was recognized as the newest club in the district. They were chartered in November with 16 members.

Public Hearing

The Town of Edenton will hold a public hearing at 7:30 P. M. on Tuesday, December 14, 1976, at the Edenton Town Hall. The public is encouraged to attend this second public hearing of the community development application process.

The first public hearing provided an outline of the Community Development Act of 1974, and the current regulations and requirements for application. Also, the public was requested to submit suggestions for possible activities to be included in the preapplication.

The second public hearing will provide an opportunity for the public to comment on the suggested activities. Questions about the program will be answered and further public recommendations for activities will be sought.

The Town of Edenton anticipates filing an application for $500,000 to provide assistance to its low and moderate income citizens.
