

The Bandon Notebook

The "frost was on the pumpkin" for sure Sunday morning as Supt. H. T. Bunting welcomed those assembled for Sunday School. He noted that our attendance had "picked up" as a result of our Contest which has turned out to be a lot of fun. Dave Lapham is Chairman for the men with Mrs. Opal Gregory Chairman for the women. Both sides are determined to win. Opal is anxious to try the men's cooking!

The beautiful flowers which graced our altar were donated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes.

Prayer List: Roy Housden is in Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Ward "A". When Dr. Bill visited him last Wednesday, his spirits were good in spite of the serious tests being made; Bill Matthews is back in Maryview Hospital, Portsmouth, Va., Room 405. No visitors but cards appreciated; Mrs. Missouri Byrum, mother of Mrs. Janice Hobbs, is confined to Intensive Care Unit, Albemarle Hospital, Elizabeth City; It was delightful to welcome Donna Hardison to Sunday School and Church Sunday but she is still very much in need of prayer, as are Mrs. Eva Jernigan, Mrs. Juanita Elliott, Mrs. Neelie Smith, Mrs. Myrtle Peele and Mrs. Jessie Porter. Please add our friends to your prayer list as well as our missionaries, Nita Pride, the Smith family and our beloved pastor.

Bible Study will be Wednesday at 7:30 P.M. in Fellowship Hall under direction of Dr. Bill. Everyone is invited.

BCWG meets on Thursday from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. Bring a sandwich and join in the fun. We were delighted to see our newcomers last week - please come back again.

"Happy Birthday" was sung by all in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Dale as she placed her contribution in our Birthday Bank.

Our Juniors, taught by Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Beach, had as their subject "A Major Choice Helps Minor Choices", Matt. 3:13-17. Aim was that the student may learn the value of joining with those of like faith in Christ.

"Jesus Declares His Mission", Luke 4:14-24, was our Adult's topic, taught by B. Kent Rowley. Aim was that adult Christians commit themselves to carry on Jesus' mission in ways appropriate for the twentieth century.

Five hundred thousand stamps will buy 50 to 60 meals. Please help these little children by saving every single postage stamp you receive. Leave stamps on the paper with approx. 1/8 inch border around them. Separate USA stamps and foreign stamps. Dr. W.J.B. Livingston's inspiring message was "How To Be Victorious in Living", based on Acts 24:24-27. Paul is the speaker in our scripture. He was one hundred per cent opposed to Jesus until he met Him on the road to Damascus. After that experience, he realized that Christ fulfilled perfectly the prophecies of all the Old Testament prophets and thereafter he proclaimed the message of the Living Messiah wherever he went. The devil sought to stop the mouth of Paul and caused his own people to turn against him. When the people turned on him, he was sent to the city of Caesarea, a beautiful city where the governor lived. This is where Felix lived. He perhaps is a symbol of the arch politician - talked out of both sides of his mouth - crooked as a person could be. By his devious ways, he had moved himself from slavery to a position of great importance. He was a gentile but had his eye on Drusilla, a Jewess, and managed to get her away from her husband.

Is there hope for a person like this? I believe there is if he confesses his sins and accepts Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Felix, with his wife Drusilla, sent for Paul and heard him concerning faith in Christ. Paul did not argue - he reasoned with him about the sensibility, success and victory of doing things right. Righteousness and godliness go together.

How do we become right with God? "STRUGGLE" is the title of a file that I have about getting my life into a right plane with God. It's worth every bit of the struggle to get right with God. Paul was talking to two people whose lives were very wrong because he wanted them to get right with God.

Temperance was the next point brought out by Paul. Temperance in ALL things, including temper, eating and dealing with people - particularly today, in race relations. Recently, during school recess, a man came into the playground and began to blow up colorful balloons for the children, who had a great time floating them in the air. The bell rang and children ran back into the building - except for one little black boy. He asked "Mister, if you blew up a black balloon, would it float?". The man looked at the small boy who had questioned him and said "It's not the color of the balloon that makes it float, it's what's inside".

Paul's next point was Judgement. Judgement goes on all the time. If you don't paint your house, it begins to peel; if we don't keep our minds active, they'll become stale. God will judge us according to every secret thing that we do. He will hold us accountable for every word we speak contrary to his will. We cannot escape judgement. Felix almost decided to go Christ's way. The devil said "Don't do it". He let the moment slide, the devil moved in and Felix never, never found that "convenient day".

We must become like putty in God's hands. Let Him "break up the ground" of our lives into "fallowed ground" and plant seeds of righteousness in us so there will be victory in our lives and no matter what the circumstances, we will be so in tune with God that we will be happy and can turn that which is evil into something good.

Bandon Chapel was the setting for a beautiful wedding solemnized Saturday afternoon at 2 P.M. when Miss Joyce McKown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes, and Mr. Ronnie Thomas Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lane, were united in marriage by Rev. Larry McClure of Rocky Hook Baptist Church, assisted by Dr. W.J.B. Livingston of Bandon.

Miss Manisa Hollowell was the Maid of Honor, Miss Nancy Boswell, Bridesmaid. Mr. Jimmy Evans was Best Man. Ushers were Messrs. Roy Nixon, Bobby McKown and Glenn Parks. Master Jimmy Owens served as Ring Bearer. Miss Darlene Owens was the Flower Girl. Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Margaret Bunting at the organ.

Following the ceremony, a sumptuous buffet was served in Fellowship Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lane will reside in Rocky Hook.
