

French Class Features Display

Parlez vous Français? Pardon our French, but have you seen the Eiffel Tower lately? Admired some lovely French embroidery? Given any thoughts to Paris in the spring? We, at Shepard-Pruden Memorial Library, can't offer you a free trip to France, but we can give you a little taste of the next best thing as we invite you to see the lovely display Mrs. Peggy Harmon's French class from John A. Holmes High School has arranged in our case this month. The students have really gone all out this time to make a variety of crafts — from pillows to a miniature replica of La Place Vendome. Sad as we were to see Mr. Van Mater's lovely glass display leave us, we welcome this fresh and bright taste of France to the Library.

Help! Help! If we're going to make our newest program — a special 3:30 P.M. every Friday afternoon hour for our young teenagers in the area, get going — we've got to have you, the young teenagers here. So — give it a try, kids. Remember — try it — you just might like it! This Friday we're showing a 20 minute color film entitled "College" which is a rather unusual film about what you can expect from college. We'll also discuss college with you and possibly relate some personal experiences. See you Friday!

As long as we're traveling, have you seen all of North Carolina that you would really like to? If not, the students from Mrs. Virginia Wood's class of seventh graders at Chowan Academy, have brought some very interesting slices of North Carolina history, geography, and beauty to the Library in the form of the scrapbooks they have recently completed. The covers of the books are outstandingly creative. One features dogwood blossoms and a cardinal (our state flower and bird) on a burlap background while another is a decoupage of a map of North Carolina on a wooden cover. If the contents are as imaginative as the covers, these youngsters have done a tremendous job of presenting the information, as well as learning all about our state. Do a little arm-chair traveling this week — come to the Library.

New books received recently at the Shepard-Pruden Memorial Library include the following:

Adult Fiction
 "Breakaway" by Louise Cooper; "A Book of Common Prayer" by Joan Didion; "The Bric-A-Brac-Man" by Russell Greenan; and "Eye Among the Blind" by Robert Holdstock.

Adult Non-Fiction
 "The Life and Death of the SLA" by Leslie Payne; and "How to Get the Job You Want" by Melvin Donah.

Juvenile Fiction
 "I Wish I Was Sick, Too!" by Franz Brandenburg and "Mister Mole" by Luis Murschetz.

Juvenile Non-Fiction
 "Jumbo Jets" by Lou Jacobs.

First Quarter Earnings Improve

RALEIGH — Bancshares of North Carolina, Inc., parent company of Bank of North Carolina, N.A., had significantly improved earnings in the first quarter of 1977 compared to the first quarter of 1976, James G. Lindley, president of both Bancshares and the bank, announced here Tuesday.

For the three months ended March 31, income before securities gains and extraordinary credit was $185,969 (10 cents per share) compared to income of $13,062 (1 cent per share) for the first three months of 1976. After an extraordinary credit of $166,000 (9 cents per share) in 1977, and securities gains of $720 in 1976, net income for the three months ended March 31, was $351,969 (19 cents per share) compared to $13,782 (1 cent per share) for the first three months of 1976.

Lindley noted that in the first quarter of 1977, Bancshares, for financial reporting purposes, had pretax accounting income of $354,000 which was offset by available net operating loss carryovers. Accordingly, the results of operations for the first three months of 1977 includes a federal income tax charge of $166,000 which is offset by an extraordinary credit of the same amount.

"We are pleased with the improvement in our earnings and the growth in the levels of our core business," Lindley said. Net loans increased $24,700,000, 16.5 per cent, from March 31, 1976 to March 31, 1977. Deposits increased $22,794,000, during the same period. "The increase in deposits was primarily the result of increases in demand deposits and consumer savings," Lindley said.

Lindley also announced that the 1977 Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held May 6 at 10 A.M. at the King Hall Auditorium on the campus of the University of North Carolina at Wilmington.

Valentine Finishes Airborne Class

FT. BENNING, Ga.— Army Specialist Four Larnell M. Valentine, son of Mrs. Virgie K. Valentine, Route 3 Edenton, N. C., recently received a Parachutist Badge upon completion of the three-week airborne course at the U. S. Army Infantry School here.

During the first week of training, students undergo a rigorous physical training program and receive instruction in the theory of parachuting. The second week they receive practical training by jumping from 34-foot and 250-foot towers. The final week includes five static-line parachute jumps. Spec. Valentine entered the Army last November. He is a 1972 graduate of John A. Holmes High School.

His father, Roscoe M. Valentine, lives at 142 East Carteret Street.
