

Kindergarten Graduates 13

The seventh kindergarten graduation at Immanuel Christian School was held May 31, in the sanctuary of Immanuel Baptist Church. Shane Allen gave the welcome to parents and friends.

Ashby Browder, principal, lead the congregation in the salutes to the American and Christian flags and in the singing of "America."

The graduating class then presented a varied program of things they had learned this past year. The program was divided as the school day is divided into Bible time, phonics and reading time, number time and fun time. A short panomine was acted out as one student, Scott Weatherly, read "The Three Billy Goats".

Browder gave a short challenge on "The Value of Christian Education."

Presentation of diplomas was made by Browder and Mrs. Frances Copeland, kindergarten teacher, to David Shane Allen, Jennifer Leigh Byrum, William Walter Copeland, IV, Teresa Yvonne Faircloth, Percy Lee Harrell, Jr., Howard Heath Hughes, Jennifer Susan Jones, Christy Kaye Oliver, Shannon Shea Reed, Tonya Marie Shirley, Brian Keith Waff, Jeffrey Scott Weatherly and David Wayne Williams.

Firemen Answer Cape Colony Alarm

Edenton Fire Department answered one alarm during the past week. At 2:55 P. M. Monday firemen went to the John W. Brabble home in Cape Colony where a pan on a stove caused a fire and slight damage, according to Chief Luther Parks.

Gymnastics Now Popular

Gymnastics has not always been the popular exciting sport that it is today. Not until recently with the performances of Olga Korbut and Nadia Comenci has gymnastics become a sport that both men and women participate in and enjoy watching.

This past school year, Miss Linda Gosnell, Third Grade teacher at White Oak School, has been teaching beginning gymnastics to a small group of students. These young gymnasts, ranging in age from five years old to eleven, have worked very hard all year.

To show their accomplishments and hard effort, they performed June 1 at White Oak's Variety Hour and again on June 2 for the faculty and children at White Oak School.

Summer classes in gymnastics will be taught by Miss Gosnell beginning June 15. For further details, contact the Edenton Recreational Department.
