Seaboard Assoc.

Convention Set On Outer Banks

NAGS HEAD — Announcement is made of the 82nd Annual Convention of the Seaboard Medical Association by president, Dr. Richard K. Neal, Jr., of Norfolk, Va. The dates are June 16-19 and the convention site is the Holiday Inn at Kill Devil Hills.

The scientific program, reports Dr. Neal, will be Friday and Saturday and will offer eight hours of Category I continuing education credit for physicians attending the week-end convention. Some 200 physicians are expected to attend from the Tidewater Virginia and Eastern North Carolina area.

Twenty-seven companies will have exhibits during the two-day scientific sessions boosting attendance some 60 to 70 persons.

On Thursday evening, the officers and past-presidents will host the guest program speakers and their wives at an informal reception at the Holiday Inn.

The Seaboard Medical Association has held its annual meetings in June at Nags Head since 1959.

Mr. Harrell

Died Sunday

HERTFORD — James Horace Harrell, 46, Route 2, Hertford, died Sunday afternoon in Norfolk General Hospital from injuries sustained after being struck by a car at Nags Head on May 28.

A native of Gates County, he was the son of William D. and Allie Boyce Harrell, Route 2, Hertford. He was a farmer.

Surviving besides his parents are three daughters: Misses Edna Lee and Diana Lynn Harrell, both of Elizabeth City; and Mrs. Marty Harris of Edenton; one son, James Horace Harrell, Jr., of South Mills; one sister, Mrs. Jessie Williams of Elizabeth City; two brothers: Elton Harrell of Tyner and William E. Harrell of Kill Devil Hills; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3:30 P. M. in the chapel of Swindell Funeral Home with Rev. Daniel Forbes officiating. Burial was in Westlawn Memorial Park in Elizabeth City.

Privilege License

Applications Due

Before July 1

A. R. Bass, revenue officer, urges taxpayers who are liable for State Privilege Licenses to apply before July 1.

According to Bass, timely applications for licenses, together with the correct remittance, should be mailed to the N. C. Department of Revenue, Post Office Box 25000, Raleigh, N. C. 27640, or submitted to the local Revenue Office.

He advises that the penalty for failure to comply will be 5 per cent for each delinquent month, or fraction thereof after July 1.
