Baptist Topic Announced

Dr. Robert E. Gray, pastor of Edenton Baptist Church, will use the subject "The Application of Christian Commitment" as his sermon topic at the 11 o'clock worship on Sunday morning. Scripture will be taken from Romans 6:12-14.

The Sanctuary Choir will render the anthem, "Lord Jesus, Think on Me" at the morning worship.

At the 7:30 evening service, Dr. Gray will speak on "The Beginning of a New Era" with text from Acts 13:4-12.

The message in song at the evening worship will be a solo, "Peace Like a River", by Gerald Hamilton, tenor. The Youth Choir will sing "Glory, Hallelujah, Jubilee" as the anthem.

Topic Slated

"The Way to Real Success in Life" is the topic chosen by Rev. Richard Blankenhorn for his sermon at the 11 A.M. service Sunday at Edenton United Methodist Church. His text is Matthew 16:24-25.

MRS. BASS HONORED BY BPW—Mrs. Lola Bass became the nineteenth member to receive the Edenton BPW Clubwoman of the Year award, presented last Thursday night at Mrs. Boswell's Restaurant. BPW Honors Mrs. Lola Bass

Edenton BPW Club last Thursday night presented their Outstanding Clubwoman of the Year award to Mrs. Lola Allan Bass, nursing supervisor of the Chowan County Health Department, and the wife of the late H.E. Bass of Edenton. She became one of 18 other BPW women to be honored with the award since its beginning in 1958.

In a joint meeting of the Edenton and Plymouth chapters held at Mrs. Boswell's Restaurant, Gail Gieseke, 1976 recipient, presented the award to Mrs. Bass, a 13-year member of BPW. She was termed an "active asset not just a fixed asset" to club activities from the local to the state levels.

As a BPW member, it was pointed out that Mrs. Bass has served as chairman of all standing committees and many special ones and has served as second vice president and parliamentarian of the local club. Her civic activities have included Boy Scout den mother, a member of the Chowan County Cancer Society, a member of the N.C. Public Health Association, secretary of District 19 Nurses Association, and a member of the VFW Auxiliary.

A native of Detroit,

Michigan, Mrs. Bass is a registered nurse of 36 years. She served as a nurse in the U.S. Army during World War II followed by continuing her career in various hospitals and in private duty before joining the Chowan County Health Dept. in 1966.
