

Percy Twine

Twine Elon Gridman

ELON COLLEGE—Percy L. Twine son of Mrs. Mary P. Twine, Route 3 Edenton, is a key player for the 1977 Elon College Fightin' Christian football team. The Elon griders have posted wins over Liberty Baptist, Lock Haven, Mars Hill, and N.C. Central. The Christians fell to Wofford in the opening game of the season as a result of turnovers.

But now things are rolling again for Coach Jerry Tolley and his chargers as they have won their last four outings. Elon has been picked to retain their South Atlantic Conference crown after finishing 7-0 in the SAC-8 in 1976. Elon advanced to the NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) playoffs for the third time in the last four years in 1976 after an 11-0-0 regular season.

Twine, a Sophomore is 6-4, 217 pound defensive end, has been a tremendous asset to Elon's football program. Elon's rushing offense is rated No. 1 in the SAC-8 and the defense is rated No. 7 in the NAIA.

"Our defense has been one of the keys to our captains and the returning of several key players, the 1977 Christians should finish among the top in the NAIA and SAC-8 again this season," Tolley concluded.

Percy is a graduate of John A. Holmes High School.

Letter To The Editor

Letters of appreciation like this one makes you feel that all efforts are worthwhile. Mr. Robert L. Martin and his assistant spoke to the Edenton Tea Party Chapter, DAR, on October 19 on Crossnore School, Inc. This school is approved by the N.C. Society of DAR for under privileged children. Thank you.

Mrs. Cornelia J. Privott
Dear Mrs. Privott:

I find it hard to express our sincere appreciation to you for the wonderful reception we received in Edenton. It was a rare treat for Dean Bare and myself to be treated so royally. I know Dean especially appreciated it because he doesn't get out like I do. It is an honor for me also to receive recognition afforded me as a representative of the children and staff of Crossnore School, Inc.

Please express our sincere appreciation to members of the Edenton Historical Society for so graciously showing us the Barker House, Court House, and Cupola House. We certainly enjoyed it and you have a right to be proud of the work you have done in Edenton. Certainly you will always be remembered for the contribution to your community. Please tell Sarah Miller and Mrs. Rose how much we appreciated their assistance.

You are real special people in the lives of the Crossnore children. Please make it a point to tell each person she is welcome on our campus anytime.

Very sincerely,
Robert L. Martin
Executive Director

Legionnaires Set Conference In Asheville

The frost is on the pumpkin, the hay is in the barn, and the Legionnaires of The American Legion, Department of North Carolina are getting ready for their annual Fall Conference at Asheville starting October 28. Their 'home away from home' for the weekend, will be the Great Smokies Hilton.

The conference activities will open on Friday morning with commission and committee meetings beginning at 8 A.M. and the Administrative Committee meeting following at 9 A.M.

The conference will continue on Saturday with commission meetings and the convening of the Department Executive Committee meeting at 1 P.M., Saturday afternoon.

It has been decided to celebrate Halloween a little early in the beautiful mountains of North Carolina and bring the National Commander of The American Legion, Robert Charles Smith in to be the banquet speaker on Friday night, October 28th at 6:30 P.M. Commander Smith is known to be the "Grand Pumpkin" at speaking engagements.

All of these pre-Halloween events, with all these fine Legionnaires, will be headed by the Department Commander of the "Ole North State", Max E. Robinson of Jacksonville.

The American Legion Auxiliary and the Forty and Eight will be sharing the delightful autumn colors at the Great Smokies Hilton also.
