Providence Church Notes

Church School begins at 9:30 A.M. Morning worship service begins at 11 A.M. with the Senior Choir serving. Dr. Fenner will be in charge of morning worship service.

We will commemorate the Lord's Supper in conjunction with our regular worship service. We invite you to come worship with us this Sunday and remain for communion service. We have old fashion religion, where the freedom of worship is yours. We go to church to worship and depart with the desire in our hearts to serve.

Our church is a church where everybody is somebody and Christ is Lord of all.

The Senior Usher Board will sponsor the Hallelujah Gospel Group Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

Future Happenings:
November 13: Miss Dorothy Sutton Johnson will be in concert at 4 P.M. She is sponsored by Mrs. Lula Johnson, Mrs. Hattie Bonner and Oliver Bonner.

November 20: Providence will observe its 112th Anniversary. Rev. W.E. Banks and congregation of First Baptist Church in Thomasville, will be guest. Time 3 P.M. Your prayers and support are earnestly solicited.

November 27: Dr. Fenner will be guest speaker at Ebenezer Baptist Church in Virginia Beach, Va. Anyone wishing to go may contact any officer of the church for tickets. Cost of trip will be $3.50 round trip (Dinner included). Buses will leave Providence at 2 P.M. Please make plan to accompany the pastor on this occasion.

The public is invited to attend any service at Providence.

Fall Festival

Center Hill Extension Homemakers Club will sponsor the Annual Fall Festival, Saturday at Center Hill Community Building. The Activities will begin at 10 o'clock and continue until 9 o'clock.

There will be country dinners of ham, greens and chicken pot pie served as well as hot dogs and hamburgers. Throughout the day orders will be taken for fried chicken plates which will be served from 5:30 to 7 o'clock. Drinks of all kinds will be available.

Mrs. J.C. Boyce and Mrs. H.T. Hollowell will be in charge of the kitchen as in previous years.

On sale throughout the day will be various bazaar items, such as clothes, aprons, and small gift items. For your shopping pleasure you will find a country produce table with whatever fresh produce in season, fruits, eggs, home canned foods, jellies, pickles, preserves and many other items.

Mrs. B.P. Monds will be in charge of the bake table. This will consist of cakes, pies, cookies, candies, and apple jacks for eating there or take home for later enjoyment.

Members of community and Extension Homemakers club invites everyone to come and enjoy this day of fun at Center Hill Community Building. At 7:30 A.M. there will be entertainment, with intervals for door prizes and cake auction.

To place your orders for the evening meal of fried chicken plates, please call Mrs. J. Cameron Byce.

GARDEN CLUB SPEAKER—Mrs. Julian Winslow, above left, made a presentation on landscaping to the Garden of Edenton Club, Tuesday morning. The presentation was in theme with an upcoming club project, the annual plant sale slated November 8 at the Edenton Municipal Building. Mrs. Winslow is pictured with Mrs. Bernie Baker and Mrs. W.J.P. Earnhardt, Jr., co-chairmen for the sale. The event is a prime fund raising effort of the club. It was reported that plants, shrubs and bulbs will be available.

Letter To The Herald Editor

On Saturday, October 29, District VIII of the N.C. Daughters of the American Revolution held its annual Good Citizens' Day in your lovely old town. Mrs. R.E. Leeper, regent of the Edenton Tea Party Chapter; and Mrs. Geroge Mack, chairman of the Chapter's Good Citizen Committee planned the day for us.

From the delicious refreshments they had prepared at the Barker House, and the Historical Tour they provided, and lastly, a delicious luncheon at Mrs. Boswell's fine restaurant topped by a fine speech from your Mayor

Roy Harrell, — it was all a great day for each of us!

I feel sure that Mr. Harrell's talk inspired our young people there to aim toward public service in their own towns or cities. If Mr. Harrell lived in my town, I'd be very proud to back him! You are indeed fortunate to have such a nice mayor!

One of your young citizens was presented a Good Citizen Award: Miss Amanda Bunch. She was runner-up in the district contest.

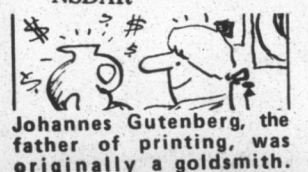

Every young person there had been chosen the outstanding Good Citizen of their school, so they were each winners. Miss Mary Jill Copeland was the Good Citizen chosen from Chowan High School; and Kenneth Pierce was the Good Citizen chosen from the John A. Holmes School. Miss Bunch represented Chowan Academy.

All of the judges for the papers complained of the awesome task of choosing winners from such excellent entries.

I just wanted you to know that we enjoyed our hospitality and to compliment you on many fine citizens!

Sincerely,
Mrs. J.C. Barnes, Jr.
District Director, VIII,
