

SAFETY STRESSED—School bus safety is very much on the minds of students at D.F. Walker School. Here they are shown orderly boarding a bus.

Walker Students List Rules For Bus Safety

The safety of pupils transported to and from school is a responsibility shared equally by passengers, classroom teachers, school bus drivers, school administrators, parents and the motoring public. Listed are school bus safety rules that student passengers must observe, as reported from D.F. Walker School.

 Sit in your seats until the bus stops.
 Keep the bus aisle clear at all times.
 Stay behind the safety rail.
 Stand well away from the road while waiting for the bus.
 Never fight on the bus.
 Never bother the emergency door unless there is an emergency.
 Be careful with pencils on the bus.
 Always be careful. Look, listen and think! Be sure it is safe before boarding or getting off the bus.

Stay in your seat while riding on the bus.
 Never play in the bus.
 Never throw mud, snow, or other objects at the bus.
 Talk softly on the school bus.
 Get the eye of the driver before crossing in front of the bus.
 Never walk behind the bus.
 Never stick your head or arms out of the bus.
 Stand behind the fence while waiting for the bus in the afternoon.
 Never push or run when getting on and off the bus.
 Hold on to the rail when entering or getting off the bus.
 If you drop anything in front of the bus, tell the driver before picking it up.
 Never play near the street or road while waiting

Free Will Baptists Set Benefit Dinner

The Free Will Baptists of Washington, Martin, Tyrrell, Pasquotank and Chowan counties will hold their annual dinner for Mount Olive College on November 10 at 7:30 P.M. at Washington County Union School, according to David Cahoon, chairman of the dinner.

At the Counties' Church dinner, Mount Olive College will present three $100 scholarships. The scholarships will be given to the church giving the greatest amount at the dinner; the church giving the greatest amount per capita (average per member); and to the church with the largest number of high school students in attendance.

The dinner is one of 17 held annually throughout Eastern North Carolina on behalf of Mount Olive College which is sponsored by the N.C. State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists.

The college hopes to raise a minimum of $100,000 at the county dinners which are being held during October and November. Last year, Washington, Martin, Tyrrell, Pasquotank and Chowan counties Free Will Baptists raised $3,232 of the over $92,000 raised at the dinners.
