Little Theater Try-Outs Set

"Love isn't what you think it is, money is the premise of Edenton Little Theatre's spring production "Thieves Carnival" by Jean Anouilh. The play will be directed by Marcy Ashton.

Tryouts will be held Feb. 15 and 16 at John A. Holmes High School at 7:30 P.M.

The comedy turns on an inversion of rolls: the thieves become the dupes, easily and willingly taken in by Lady Hurf who sees the masquerade as a game which might relieve the boredom of her rich existence. It calls for a large cast with young and older players needed as well as back stage help.

Come and have some fun. The play will be presented April 6, 7 and 8.

On February 15 the Woman's Missionary Union of the Edenton Baptist Church will host the Home Mission Study for all churches in the Chowan Baptist Association.

Each February a study of the Home Mission Board Graded Series is scheduled to help church members learn more about the challenge and the work of home missionaries.

The Leaven and the Salt which is about laypersons in missions will be the book taught by Gordon West. During the study a film Laypersons in Missions will also be shared. There will be a morning session at 10 A.M. and a night session at 7:30 P.M.
