Club Group At Retreat

Eleven Chowan County 4-H'ers attended the 4-H Retreat held at Chowan College in Murfreesboro Febuary 25 and 26. 'Freedom To Be Me", was the theme of the retreat.

Classes were: crafts, taught by Dasha Efird of the ECU Collegiate 4-H Club, communications, taught by Betty Lou Davis, N.E. district reporter; sign language, taught by Mike Helms, state 4-H officer; personal appearance, taught by Sandy Wiggins, home economic agent Tyrrell County and working with the Handicapped, taught by Susan Clark, N.C. Easter Seal Society.

Two special group sessions were lead by Mrs. Josephine Patterson, N.E. District Chairman, on "Freedom to be Me", and Wade Powell a Dale Carnegie representative on building and projecting selfconfidence.

Al Ward of Chowan, district vice president assisted with the retreat. Debbie Jordan, Route 2, Edenton, announced her candidacy for district secretary-treasurer.

Those attending from Chowan County were: Kecia Phelps, Patricia Brown, Carolyn Leary, Edwina Harley, Maurice Jordan, Andre Green, Cynthia White, Leon Rouson, Al Ward, Debbie Jordan and Tracy Clark. Miss Brenda Coston, Mrs. Fran Ward and Murray Goodwin accompanied the group.

According to State Superintendent Craig Phillips an estimated 111,856 public school students will be taught this year in driver education programs. These students will be instructed by some 1,200 part-year and full-time certified driver

Extension Club Group Holds Meet

Center Hill Extension Homemakers Club met on Tuesday night for a hot dog and hamburger supper. Special guest were husbands, children, and friends of the club mem-

Mrs. H.T. Hollowell, club president, welcomed those present. Rev. George Broome gave the invocation. A delicious supper was served by the club members.

After the meal, Mrs. Hollowell announced several up-coming events. Mrs. Gladys White, home extension agent, was present and gave a very interesting talk on "Stress".

We were told that all of us have stress at one time or another, and we must learn to cope with the strains of every day living. In a way stress can be your best friend and also your worst enemy. Each person has to find a way to manage stress and to control the overload of stress. We discussed true and false answers to questions on stress.

The group was dismissed by Mrs. Hollowell.

the state. In a report published by the state education agency, an estimated $11,651,745 will be allocated to the 145 local education agencies during the 1977-78 school year.

education teachers across

The initial allotment assigned to each local unit the bulk of its operating funds for the year. The midyear revision adjusted funding to fit revised numbers of students to be taught, actual numbers and salary ratings of teachers employed and current year rates of cost for such items as car operations, insurance, instructional materials, and equipment. The driver education program in North Carolina is completely financed by the $3.00 motor vehicle registration fee.

The State Board of Education approved these mid-year revisions of driver education budgets for fiscal year 1977-78 at its January meeting. The Edenton-Chowan School system received an initial allocation of $32,445.00 on July 7, 1977 and will be alloted $1,597.00 for a total amount of $34,042.00 for the remainder of 1977-78. An estimated 329 students will be enrolled in driver education programs during 1977-78 in Chowan
